Many Awards Given in Spring

Springtime at Sandia was filled with a variety of activities and honors. Throughout March, April and May, several awards were presented to students:

Two hundred forty-five pound tackle Steve Eisenhower was named to the Prep All-American Football program by the editor of "Coach and Athlete" magazine;

Basketball player Dave Wood was named to play on the Albuquerque All-Star team;

Two Sandia students, Karen Kesselman and Cia Montoya, were saluted by the Albuquerque National Bank's weekly salute to outstanding teenagers;

Nora Carter was named New Mexico's Outstanding Teenager for '74, and received a five hundred dollar scholarship from region nine of the Outstanding Teenager Organization;

An honorable mention was won by Nathan Skousen in the New Mexico Betty Crocker Family Leader of Tomorrow Competition;

One Sandian took honors at the Northwest Science Fair. Derek Geer won the Marine Technology Society Certificate.

The drama department put on two shows during the spring. Drama I presented "The Pale Pink Dragon," a children's show on March 16, and a production of Jean Giradoux's play "Ondine," was given by the drama department on May 23, 24, and 25.

Sandia Office Education Association members took many honors at the statewide competition. Winners from Sandia were Diane Broshious, Suzanne Miller, D'Ann Smith, Karla Roberts, Glenna Hester, Jodie Guthrie, Debbie Lee, Susan Easley and Erin McNew. Also, the second week of March was designated Distributive Education Clubs of America Week by the Albuquerque Public Schools.

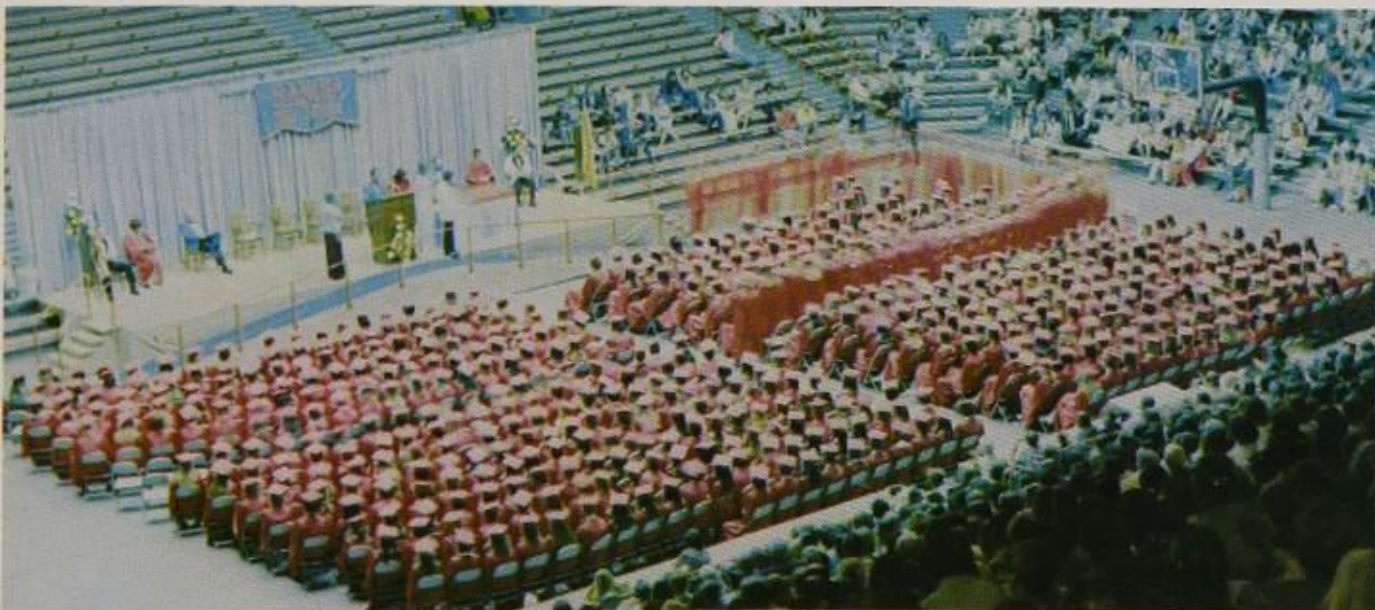

Easter vacation started early when a bomb was found in a locker on the day before vacation was to begin. The "bomb" turned out to be a fake-two highway flares wired to a regular alarm clock.

English teacher Marita Dickinson was elected to serve as president of the ACTA for 1975-76, and Keith Griffith signed on as new head basketball coach at Sandia. He left a coaching job at Rio Grande to take the position.

The '74 Senior Assembly was May 30 and several awards were presented to seniors: the boy most likely to succeed-David Addington; the girl most likely to succeed-Nora Carter; the most popular boy-Guy Walton, and the most popular girl-Dana Miller. On the lighter side of the awards, Lee Anne Evanko was voted the girl with the prettiest legs; Brad Perdue-the best male physique; Theresa Davidson-the class clown, and Ron Gillham-the class drunk.

May 31 was the day for the Honors Assembly at Sandia High.

Sandia's Modern Dancers presented their spring show May 31 and repeated it June 1.

1974 Homecoming Highlights Month; Susan Crowned

Many long hours were devoted to the preparation of homecoming, October 18. Erin McNew headed the homecoming committee and led the 15 steady workers in the project. Their efforts resulted in the two coronation assemblies on the morning of the 18th. Two assemblies were presented because of the limited seating capacity of the boys gym. The Albuquerque Convention Center was the scene of the annual homecoming dance. Blue Snow provided music for the much larger-than-anticipated crowd. This year's royalty were selected from more than 80 candidates.

Parent Night was the 29th. Few parents came to meet and talk with the teachers because of the heavy rains and resulting mud.

Classes Begin September 5

September started off with the chaos of registration. Freshmen and sophomores had all their classes assigned by computer, but seniors and juniors had to schedule themselves in big barn fashion that took place in the girls' gym. Because of a larger enrollment than anticipated, many students still had no schedule when classes took up on September 5. Counseling center was still trying to find where students were or supposed to be until the end of the month.

Underclass elections were the first order of business. Freshman and sophomore class officers and freshman cheerleaders were elected.

Marching Band Wins Parade

There were a variety of activities during the month of November.

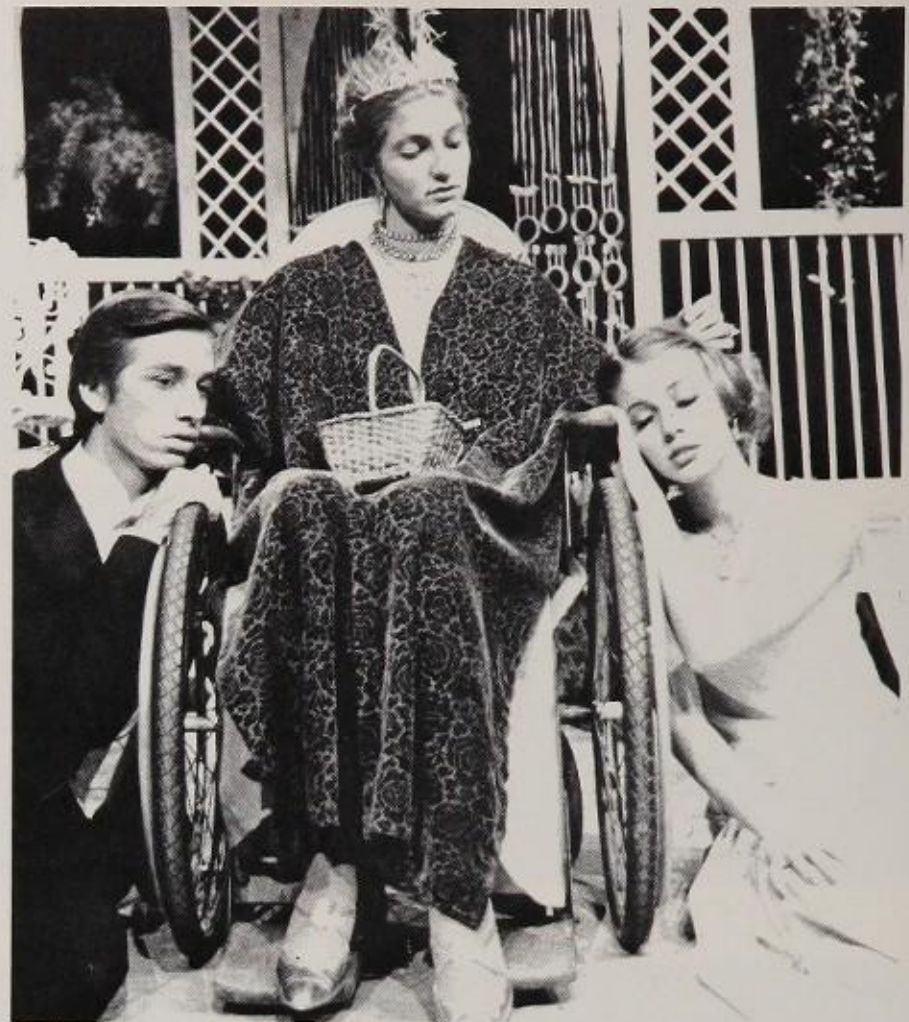

The all-school play "Ring Around the Moon," was presented on Nov. 7, 8 and 9.

Three Sandia students: Carol Caffan, Suzanne Miller, and Rhonda Greeson took part in the Junior Miss Pageant. Miss Greeson won an honorable mention.

Many Sandians participated in the annual twenty-mile Walk For Mankind. Some students walked for one of the clubs at Sandia, so that some of the proceeds would go to the club.

This year Thanksgiving fell on Nov. 28. On the 29th, Sandia's Marching Band and Drill Team took first place in the Christmas parade.

While coming home from Roswell after participating in a drill meet, some members of Sandia's ROTC suffered from carbon monoxide inhalation on a faulty bus.

Christmas Project Benefits All Faiths

In December the Music Department was very active. The band and orchestra sponsored a ham dinner to raise funds for their trip to Amarillo in April. Dec. 11, the Concert Band, Stage Band, and Advanced Stage Band presented a concert in the Sandia Theater.

The Third Annual High School Theater Festival was held at the University of New Mexico's Rodey Theater. Sandia was one of the nineteen high schools that took part in the festival.

This year the ASB Christmas project was a can food drive for the All Faith's Home.

ASB sponsored a Christmas Ball on Dec. 21. Students were entertained by the band, "Blue Snow."

58 Attend All-State Music

School starting a day late, drama festivals, All-State Music, semester exams and registration were all a part of January.

Snow delayed the start of school for another year.

On January 8, teachers took an in-service day. School was dismissed at noon, and teachers in their respective departments discussed the needs for their department.

Fifty-eight Sandians qualified for All-State Music competitions held at UNM.

Semester exams were held Jan. 20-22.

Registration was in the "Big Barn" fashion for all students, unlike previous years when sophomores and freshmen were "computer" registered.

Las Torreras, Sandia's drill team, went to state competition in Los Alamos at the end of the month.

Over-all, the month was a success with only minor confusion during registration.

Las Torreras Take State Title

Las Torreras, drill team, took the State title and the Sweepstakes Trophy at State competition in Los Alamos, February 1.

Nostalgia Day was one of the highlights of the month with a look at how it was back in the '50's.

Goldfish swallowing, slicked back hair, hall passes and phone booth stuffing were popular activities.

Coach Ruscetti and Majda Anderson revived a dance step from the early '50's.

Albuquerque Academy hosted the Annual East Area College Night. Students from three high schools attended the fair sponsored by colleges from across the nation.

Seniors ordered customary caps and gowns.

An all school play, "Thurber Carnival" featured many of the outstanding works of James Thurber.

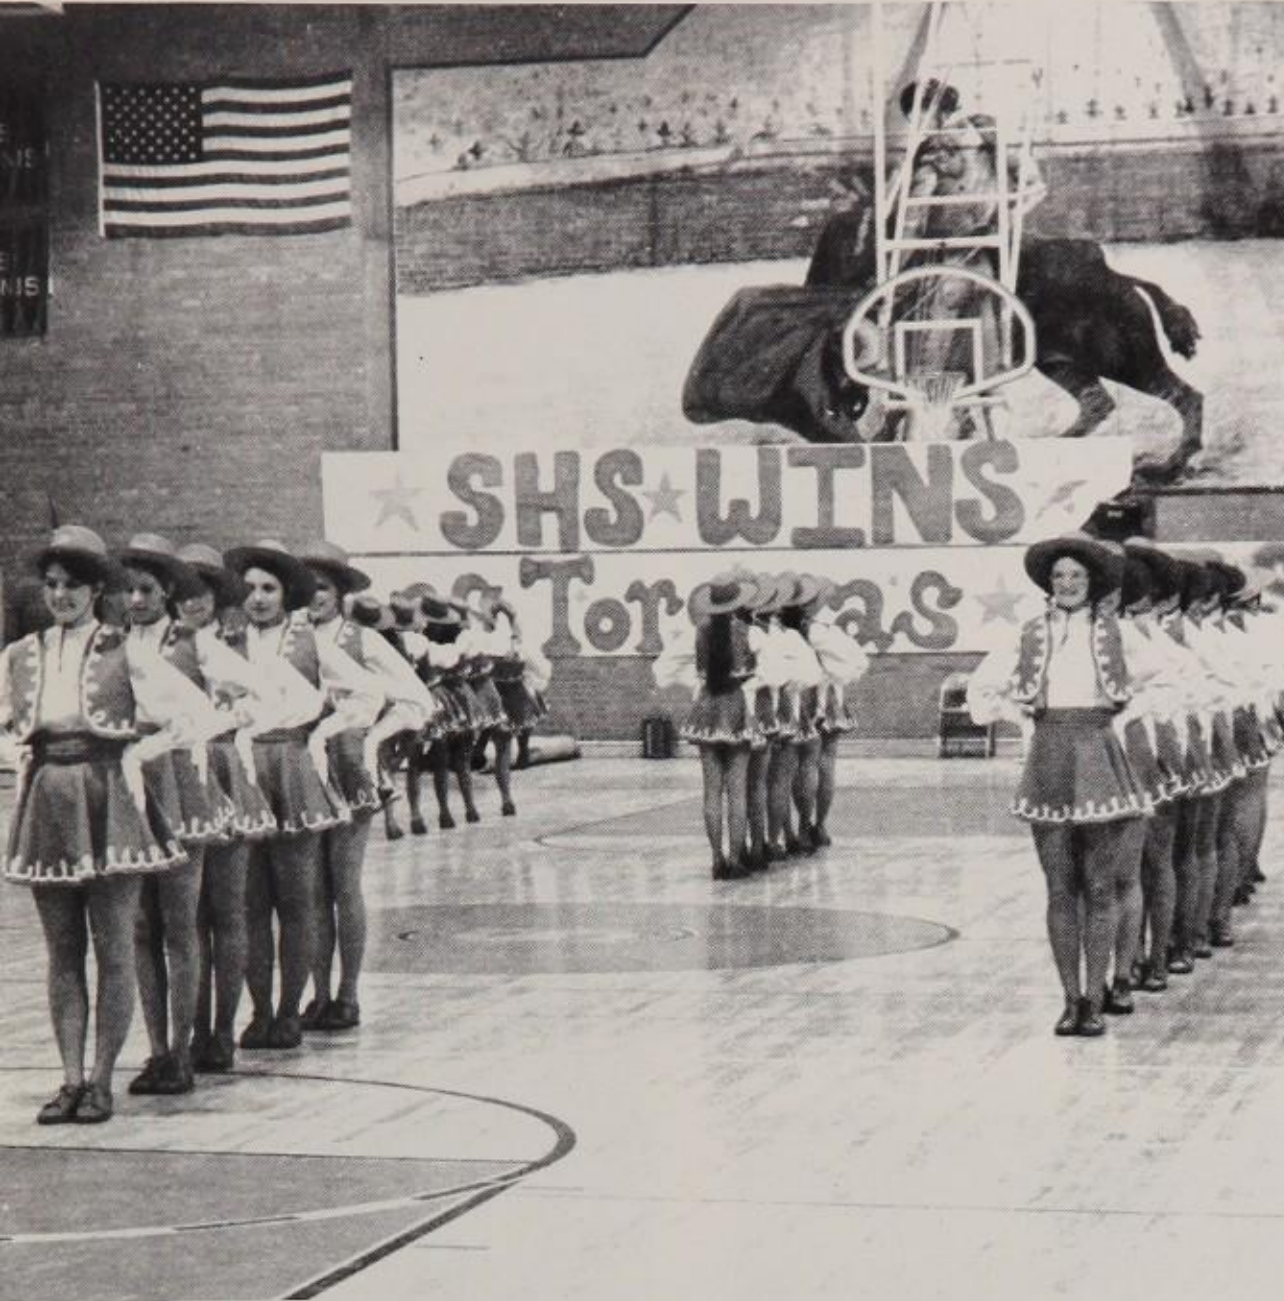

State Student Council was held in Raton, with eight delegates from Sandia attending the convention.

Ann Beutler, representing Basketball, was elected Sports Senorita. Majda Anderson, Track, and Linda Stecker, Cross-Country, were elected as princesses in the annual assembly.

State swimming and wrestling meets began at the end of the month.

Stanley Chosen As TWIRP King

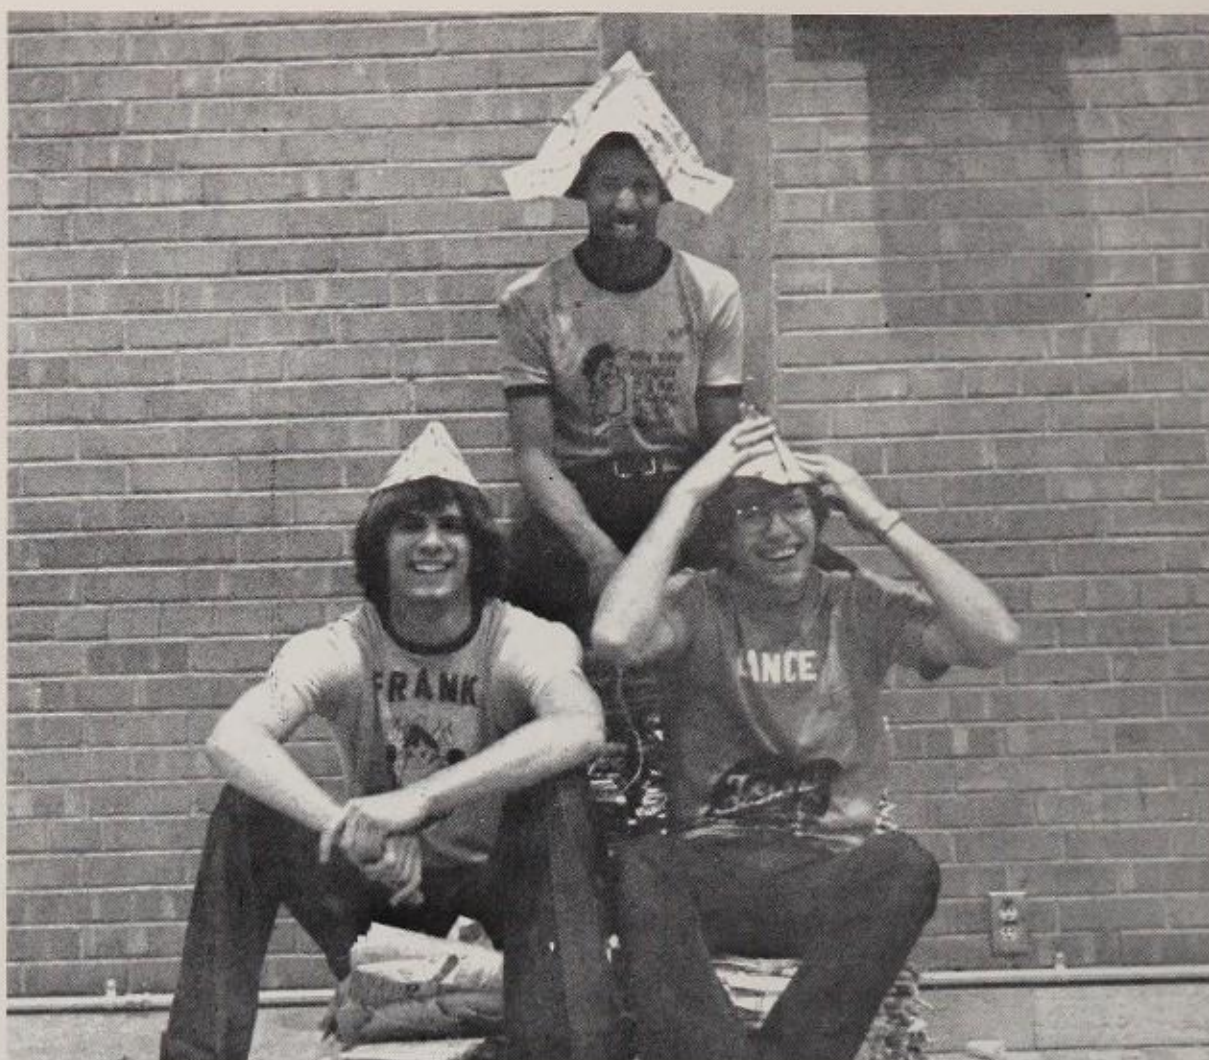

Sandia's annual TWIRP Week was March 17-22. Activities for the week included Melodramas, a hootenanny, and the Coalminer's Dance.

Stanley Whitaker was selected King during a special assembly on March 19. Lance Yarmer and Frank LaCourse were chosen as the two TWIRP knights.

The wrestling team took fifth in the state wrestling match. Sandia's swim team also took fifth in their state meet.

The National Honor Society staged a Talent Show during a special assembly. Members of the society presented a variety of skits.

School was dismissed on March 27 for Easter vacation.

'Best-All-Around' Goes To Band

Speech traveled to Portales to compete in the State speech meet. Sandia placed second with Andy Schultz qualifying for nationals.

Boys and Girls Staters were selected, 12 girls and 16 boys from the junior class.

Drama presented 'Look Homeward Angel' on the tenth through the twelfth.

Student Council sponsored Dingus Day to raise money for the March of Dimes.

Sign-ups for ASB officers and class officers were held, along with cheerleaders at the end of the month.

The bands and orchestra went to Amarillo for a band festival during the last weekend of the month.

On the last Friday of the month new Staters made a special showing at the airport.

Large Chosen To Lead ASBC

Varsity cheerleaders and class officers were elected at several 'D' schedule assemblies. ASB officers are Andy Large, president; Sheryl Paloni, vice-president; Debbie Betterton, secretary-treasurer. Senior class officers are Lance Witt, president; Sheryl Mitchell, vice-president; Liasa Bentz, Secretary-treasurer; Junior class officers are Lindsay Coats, president; Linnea Johnson, vice-president, Melissa Byrd, secretary treasurer.

The Junior-Senior Prom was held at the convention center from 8:30 to 12:00. "One Mile Ahead" played.

State Tennis, Track, and Baseball took place May 16, 17, 18.

The all-school musical, the "Music Man," was sold out at all four performances. A children's show was presented by the Drama classes May 3.

Graduation announcements and caps and gowns were delivered and distributed.

Vigil Chosen To Head Sandia

Dr. Thomas Vigil was selected to serve as Sandia's principal this year, replacing Ms. Pat Christmas.

He and his assistant principals, Jack Atkins, Mrs. Bettye Coffey, and Keith Weathersby, got new offices in the administration building.

The new one-half million dollar building was completed in July and the administration and counselors moved in early in August.

Counselors Get New Quarters

Sandia's counselors put in a hectic first nine weeks this year. Enrollment was about 2900, compared to almost 2200 last year. This jump came as a result of the addition of freshmen, the first time ever at Sandia.

A counseling center, added to the new administration building, made it much easier for students to keep in touch with their counselor and more convenient to see them.

Frank Graham served as head counselor.

35 Classes Give Wide Coverage

Many different courses were offered in Language Arts.

Freshmen were required to take one semester of English 9.

Sophomores had a choice of two different first semester classes, English 10 or Tapestry of Culture. Second semester they chose two courses, one each nine weeks.

Juniors and Seniors were offered more than 35 various one semester English courses. The classes were in three general areas Grammar, Writing, and Literature. Outside of these areas were speech, journalism and humanities.

The English Department was headed by Mrs. Pat Meleski.

2-Hour Blocks Give Experience

The Business Education Department aimed to give students knowledge of all aspects of business. Courses ranged from secretarial skills to advertising and business law.

Office Education was designed to give students experience in office operations. They gained experience with all types of business machines and through a two hour time block, got simulated, on-the-job experience.

Distributive Education taught students marketing, advertising and selling techniques.

Students taking Office Education were required to join the Office Education Association and Distributive Education students had to join the Distributive Education Clubs of America.

Ms. Dawn Hendrix headed the Business Education department.

Electives Popular In Social Studies

The Social Studies Department offered courses in three main areas: United States history, world history-world culture studies, and several elective areas. Both chronological and thematic surveys and English-history combined classes were available in United States history. In the world history-world culture studies, students selected classes in world civilization (offered in four semester courses arranged chronologically), the history of the Far East, the history of Russia, anthropology, world geography, and humanities 12 (world history-world literature). Sociology and social psychology were very popular electives as were The Story of Albuquerque and Youth in Politics. Sophomores were offered two interdisciplinary classes; one is a social studies-biology course, the other is anthropology-English.

Four new teachers were added to the department this year: Pat Bassett, Douglas Blech and Pay Stell in U. S. history and Pam Rothery in world geography.

Double Levels For Math Study

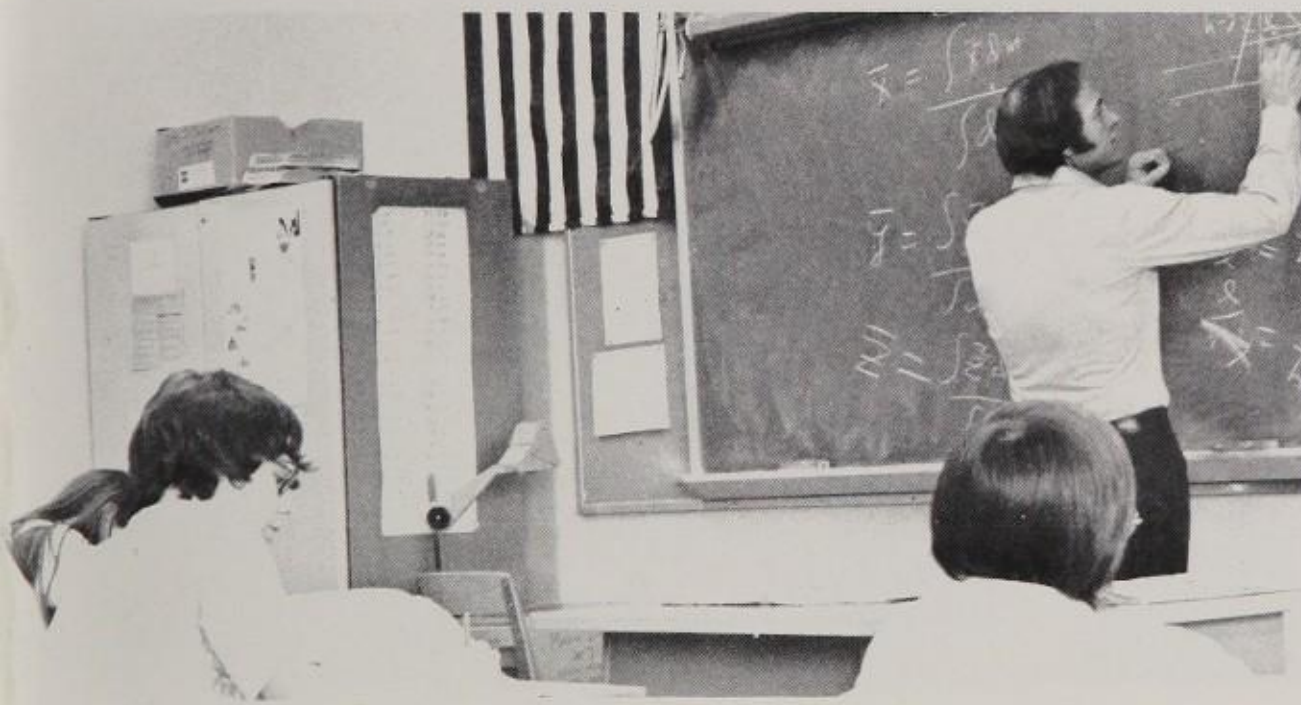

A wide range of math classes were offered to students this year. They went from college level calculus for seniors to courses in basic math operations for freshmen and sophomores.

The standard math program consisted of algebra I for freshmen, geometry for sophomores, algebra II for juniors and math analysis or calculus for seniors.

It was taught on two levels, enriched and regular. The enriched ending with calculus and the regular with math analysis.

Some special interest courses were offered, such as Computer Oriented Math, Probability and Statistics and Aviation.

Ms. Susan Gill was math department chairman.

Survey Course Added to Science

The Science Department offered many varied courses for students of different interest levels. Some courses were designed as general survey courses and others were planned for students of specific interests and planning on careers in science related fields.

Freshmen were required to take a science survey course.

Sophomores, juniors and seniors selected courses from three general areas, biology, chemistry and physics.

Ernest Polansky served as chairman of the science department.

2-Hour Periods Aid Learning

Vocational education was stressed in the Industrial Arts classes. Two hour periods gave students more time to learn in those classes where experience was needed more than books and lectures.

Drafting, electronics and construction gave students knowledge of building and engineering fields.

Students learned their way around internal combustion engines and learned simple repair procedures in Auto Mechanics and Power Mechanics.

Safety and proper tool usage were stressed in Woods and Metals.

4 Languages Taught at Sandia

Students at Sandia were offered four different foreign languages to study, Latin, German, French and Spanish.

Latin classes were taught by Mr. Thomas Braig with Levels I and II offered.

French was instructed by two teachers, French I and II were taught by Mrs. Ingrid Crawford and III and IV were taught by Mr. Allen Roth.

Spanish was taught by Mr. Melvin Done and Mr. Belisandro Mares.

French classes took part in "French Weekend" in March and German classes participated in "German Weekend" held in April.

P.E. Classes Leave Campus

The physical education department offers the basic required courses for freshmen and sophomores along with two elective classes for juniors and seniors.

Junior and senior classes often leave campus to take advantage of facilities that Sandia does not have. These classes go to tennis courts, golf courses, bowling alleys and various other places throughout the city.

Freshmen and sophomore classes take part in the usual physical education program. It includes speedball, basketball, volleyball, softball and track.

The department is headed by Jim Ottman.

Janitors Keep Busy at All Hours

Early each day the cafeteria workers got busy and prepared many hot lunches. Besides cooking for Sandis students, they also cooked for other schools that do not have kitchens.

The janitorial staff worked almost 24 hours a day to keep the school clean and remove the results of vandalism. They also maintained the outside grounds.

Sandia's 1974 state champion baseball team had a season record of 20-7, finishing 1st in district with a record of 6-4. The district title was determined by a play-off game between Highland and Sandia which the Matadors won 4-2. Sandia advanced to the state playoffs, meeting West Mesa and Carlsbad. Sandia blasted Roswell 14-3 for the state AAAA title. The Matadors took a commanding 9-0 lead in the first inning, and neither team scored in the final 6 1/2 innings.

Rusty Rutledge had six home runs and was named most valuable player in District 3AAAA. Jay Minturn pitched two no-hitters out of 13 games, winning six and losing three. Kyle Rutledge, considered "a killer with the bat" according to the Albuquerque Tribune, finished the season with three home runs. Rusty, Kyle and Jay were named to the District 3AAAA first team.

JV Ends Season With 9-5 Record

Sandia's '74 Little Blue baseball team worked hard not to be upstaged by the state champion varsity team and finished the season with a successful 9-5 record.

Under the coaching of Bob Henderson, the team made a good start on the season by trouncing Academy twice, 10-2, 8-0, and then beating Rio Grande 9-0. They won their first four out of five games, losing their fifth to Valley in a tense 2-3 battle.

Inconsistency proved to be a problem as they beat each of the teams that they played, at least once, but only beating Academy and Rio Grande both of the times they played.

City Coaches Vote Rutledge All City Offensive, Defensive Teams

"Relax, please. Prop up your feet, make yourself comfortable.

"And give thanks that you weren't sitting next to a Sandia football player on the team's bus ride Friday night from Wilson stadium to the school.

"You'd have got muddy, wet, cold, maybe bumped onto the floor, maybe hollered at ... because all the players were muddy, wet, cold and most likely not in pleasant spirits.

"Sandia had two consecutive fourth-quarter punts blocked by the same player, blew a 13-6 third-quarter lead and lost a Dist. 3AAAAA contest to Mayfield 27-13.

"The sky and the ground weren't fit for man or beast to play football under or on. Talk about rain—brother! The clouds once descended the field you could see them, about four feet off the ground!

"And the mud—the mud was so bad that before the kickoff the Sandia boys were dirtier than the mischievous boy in the Tide commercial.

"But they had to play.

"Sandia coach Jim Ottman tried to describe what happened to his team by saying 'We just got blown out. Hell, their quarterback is bigger than anyone on our team.'"

Thus the Alb. Tribune described the game between Mayfield and Sandia. This seemed to be a typical game for the team.

Despite a losing season Sandia had the largest attendance record in the city.

Kyle Rutledge was named to the All-City offensive and defensive teams. Mike Carter was one of the few freshman to play varsity football in the city.

Sandia wins came against Rio Grande, and Albuquerque High, with Alamogordo forfeiting because of playing an ineligible player.

Matadors record in district was 1-3, losing to Las Cruces, Highland, and Mayfield.

Junior Varsity Beats Monarchs To Cap Season

Sandia's junior varsity team, under the direction of head coach O.D. Maes, ended the season with a convincing 13 point victory over the Manzano Monarch junior varsity team.

The win capped a successful 7-3-0 season. The team won their first game with Valley by 13 points, but lost their next two games. Their second game they lost to Los Alamos by only one point and were handed a 34-0 defeat at the hands of Del Norte.

The Matadors rebounded to win six of their next seven games, their one loss to Eldorado.

Freshman Team Shows Defense

For their first year at Sandia, the freshman football team made a good showing, having only six points scored against them the entire season. However, those six points spelled a very disappointing defeat in the city championship game when the freshman team was unable to score. The Cleveland Junior High Colts took the city title.

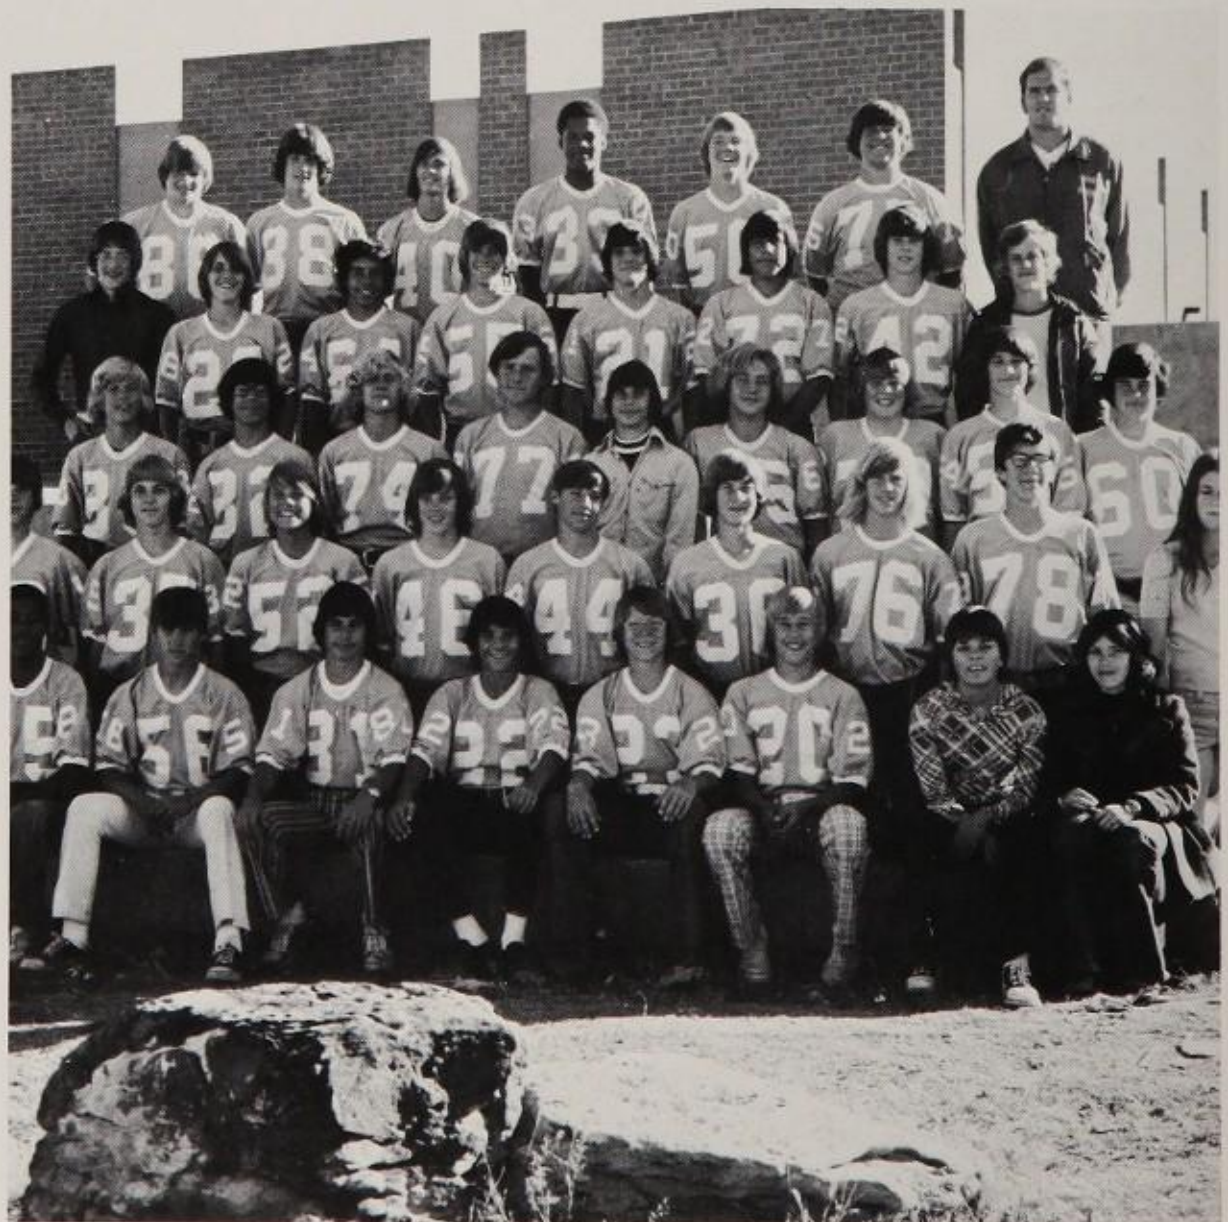

The Matador freshmen had a season record of three wins, two ties (0-0) and the loss in their final game.

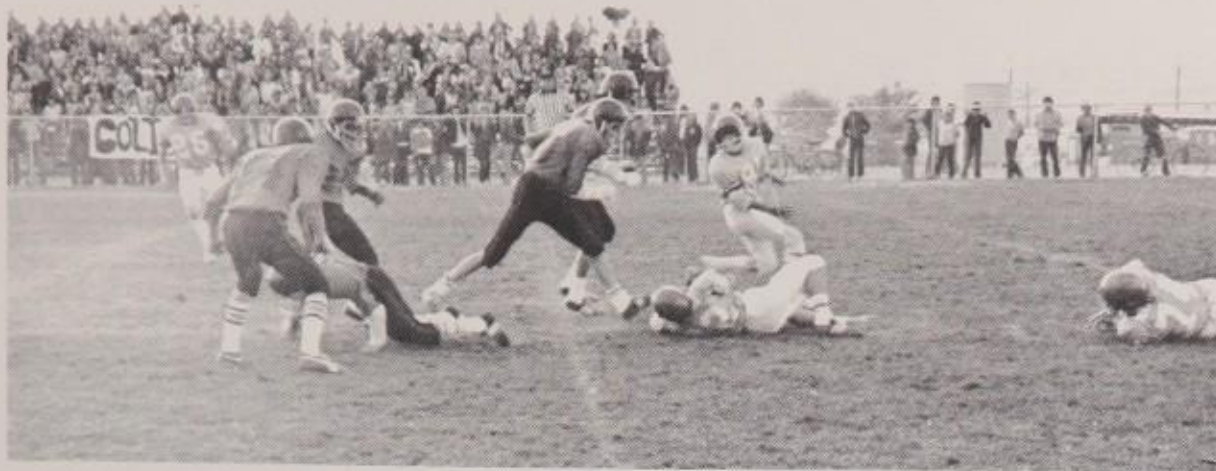

The strong defensive freshmen were coached this year by Steve Roberts. The team started off with two games of 14 points and in their third game scored an impressive 50 points, but was unable to score in any of the three games left on their schedule. One bright point in the season was the innovation of having water girls Melinda Smith, Lisa Galassini and Kathy Robinson.

Volleyball Team Begins Season With Win Streak

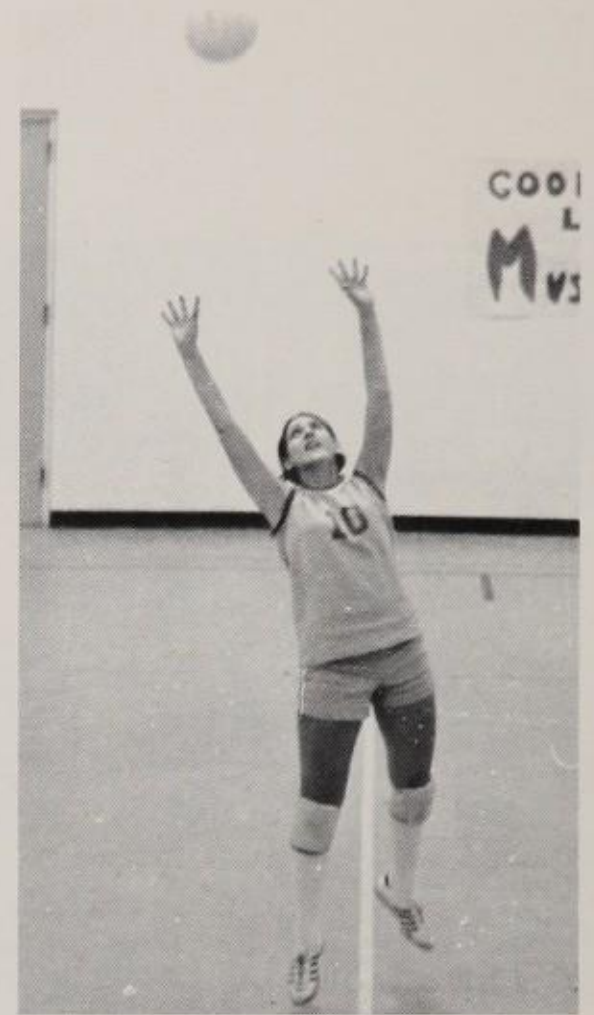

After winning seven of their first eight games, the varsity volleyball team entered the district tournament only to lose two disappointing matches to Manzano and St. Pius. The losses eliminated this year's Sandia team from the state tournament and a chance to take the state title for the second year in a row. During regular season play, the only loss came against Cibola who went on to take this year's state championship. Wins came against Grants, Encino, St. Pius, Los Lunas, Rio Grande, Bernalillo and Los Alamos.

X-Country 2nd in District

For the first time in the school's history, the cross country team placed second in district to carry Sandia to the state championships.

The 16-man team, composed of runners from all four grade levels and led by coach Joe Williams, scored a 51 behind Las Cruces with a 44 in the District 3AAAA meet in Alamogordo. Junior Doug Stewart was high point man for the team, placing fourth in district. Russ Jaramillo, Dave Stewart, Gary Womelsduff and Brad Haslam all finished in the top 16.

The Matador runners finished 8th overall in the state competition which was won by Santa Fe. Doug Stewart again had the top position of any Sandia runner finishing 27th.

The most significant meet this year was the first place win over Valley, Albuquerque High and Cibola. It was the first win for Sandia in six years.

ORGANIZATIONS

ASB Sponsors 'Dingus Day'

Decorating for Homecoming, sponsoring a Christmas project for the All Faith's Home, and participating in the State Student Council, were just some of the various activities of the 74-75 Associated Student Body.

Some of their main projects: ASB participation in the Walk for Mankind and "Dingus Day" to benefit the March of Dimes. They also sponsored four school dances and devised a teacher evaluation questionnaire, presented to the student body in May.

Several representatives of Sandia High School ASB made three presentations at the State Student Council convention during February in Raton. The presentation involved the experimental teacher evaluation, student rights and responsibilities and new constitutional reform.

Officers for the year were Jim Tilley, president; Andy Schultz, vice-president; and Pam Deterie, secretary-treasurer.

Politically-minded SHS Staters' Club Learns Fundamentals of Government

Members of Sandia's Staters Club staged numerous flag-raising activities throughout the year. They also helped the school administration in registration for first semester.

The purpose of the club was to give students interested in government a chance to learn about their city governments and the fundamentals of politics.

Staters sponsored a dance after a football game and raised more than $250 for their club.

Each of the members making it through the selection evaluations were asked questions before a board of teachers and Staters. There were twelve girls and sixteen boys chosen.

Officers were Kip Luna, president; Tod Hirt, vice-president; and Terri Murphy, secretary.

Honorary Group Sponsors Show

Selling bumper stickers, staging a talent show assembly, and tutoring students were just a few of the activities of the Virgil I. Grissom Chapter of the National Honor Society. In addition to these activities, they also helped write the curriculum survey and went over methods of induction of new members.

Honor Society is an honorary organization based on scholarship, leadership, character and service. All members must have a 3.25 grade point average.

Officers for the year were Janet Napolitano, president; Madolyn Smith, vice-president; Sandy Erickson, secretary; and Julie Burks, treasurer. Sponsor for the club was Ms. Sandra Walden.

Members Active In Spanish Club

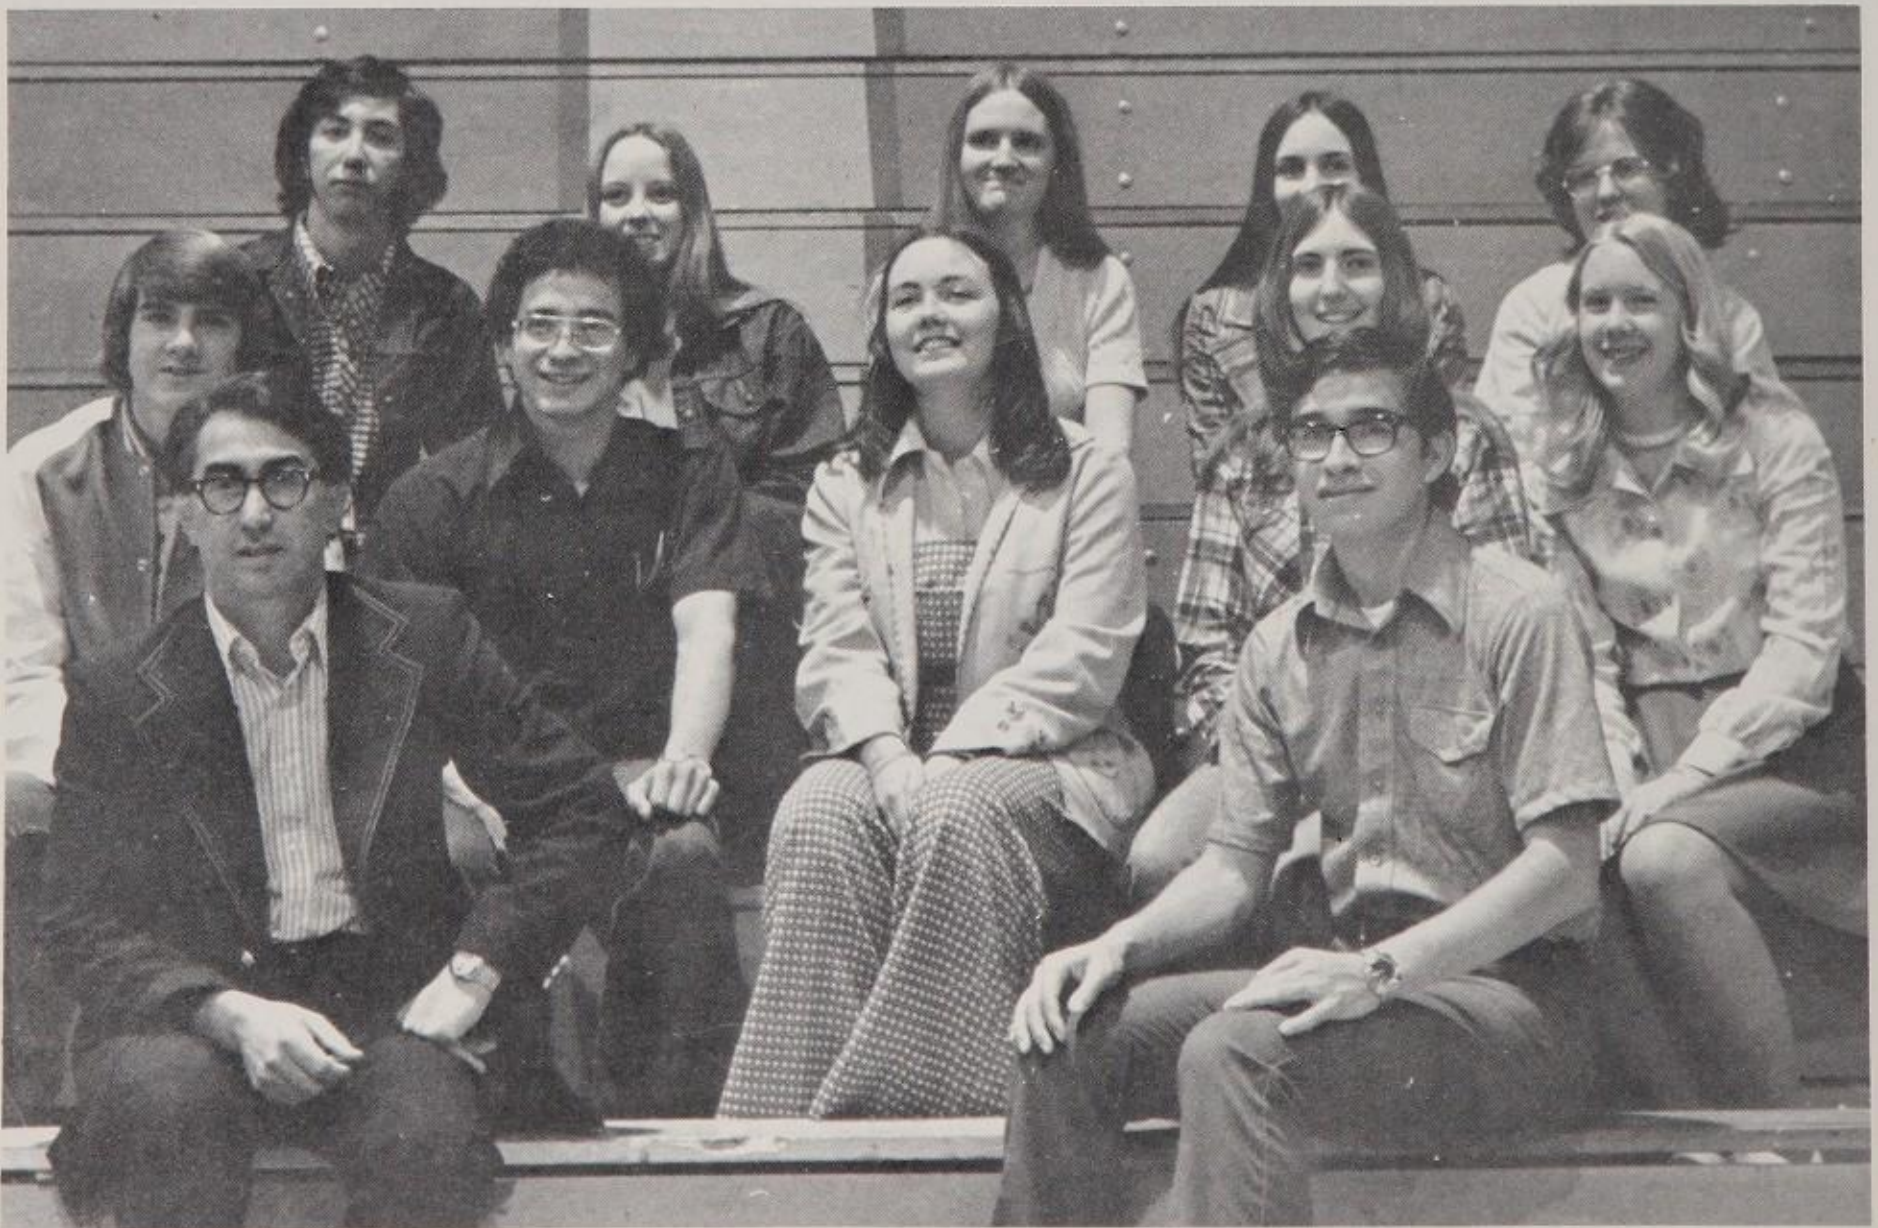

Members of Los Aficianados, Spanish Club, and the Manolete Chapter of the Sociedad Honor Society, participated in several fund-raising activities this year.

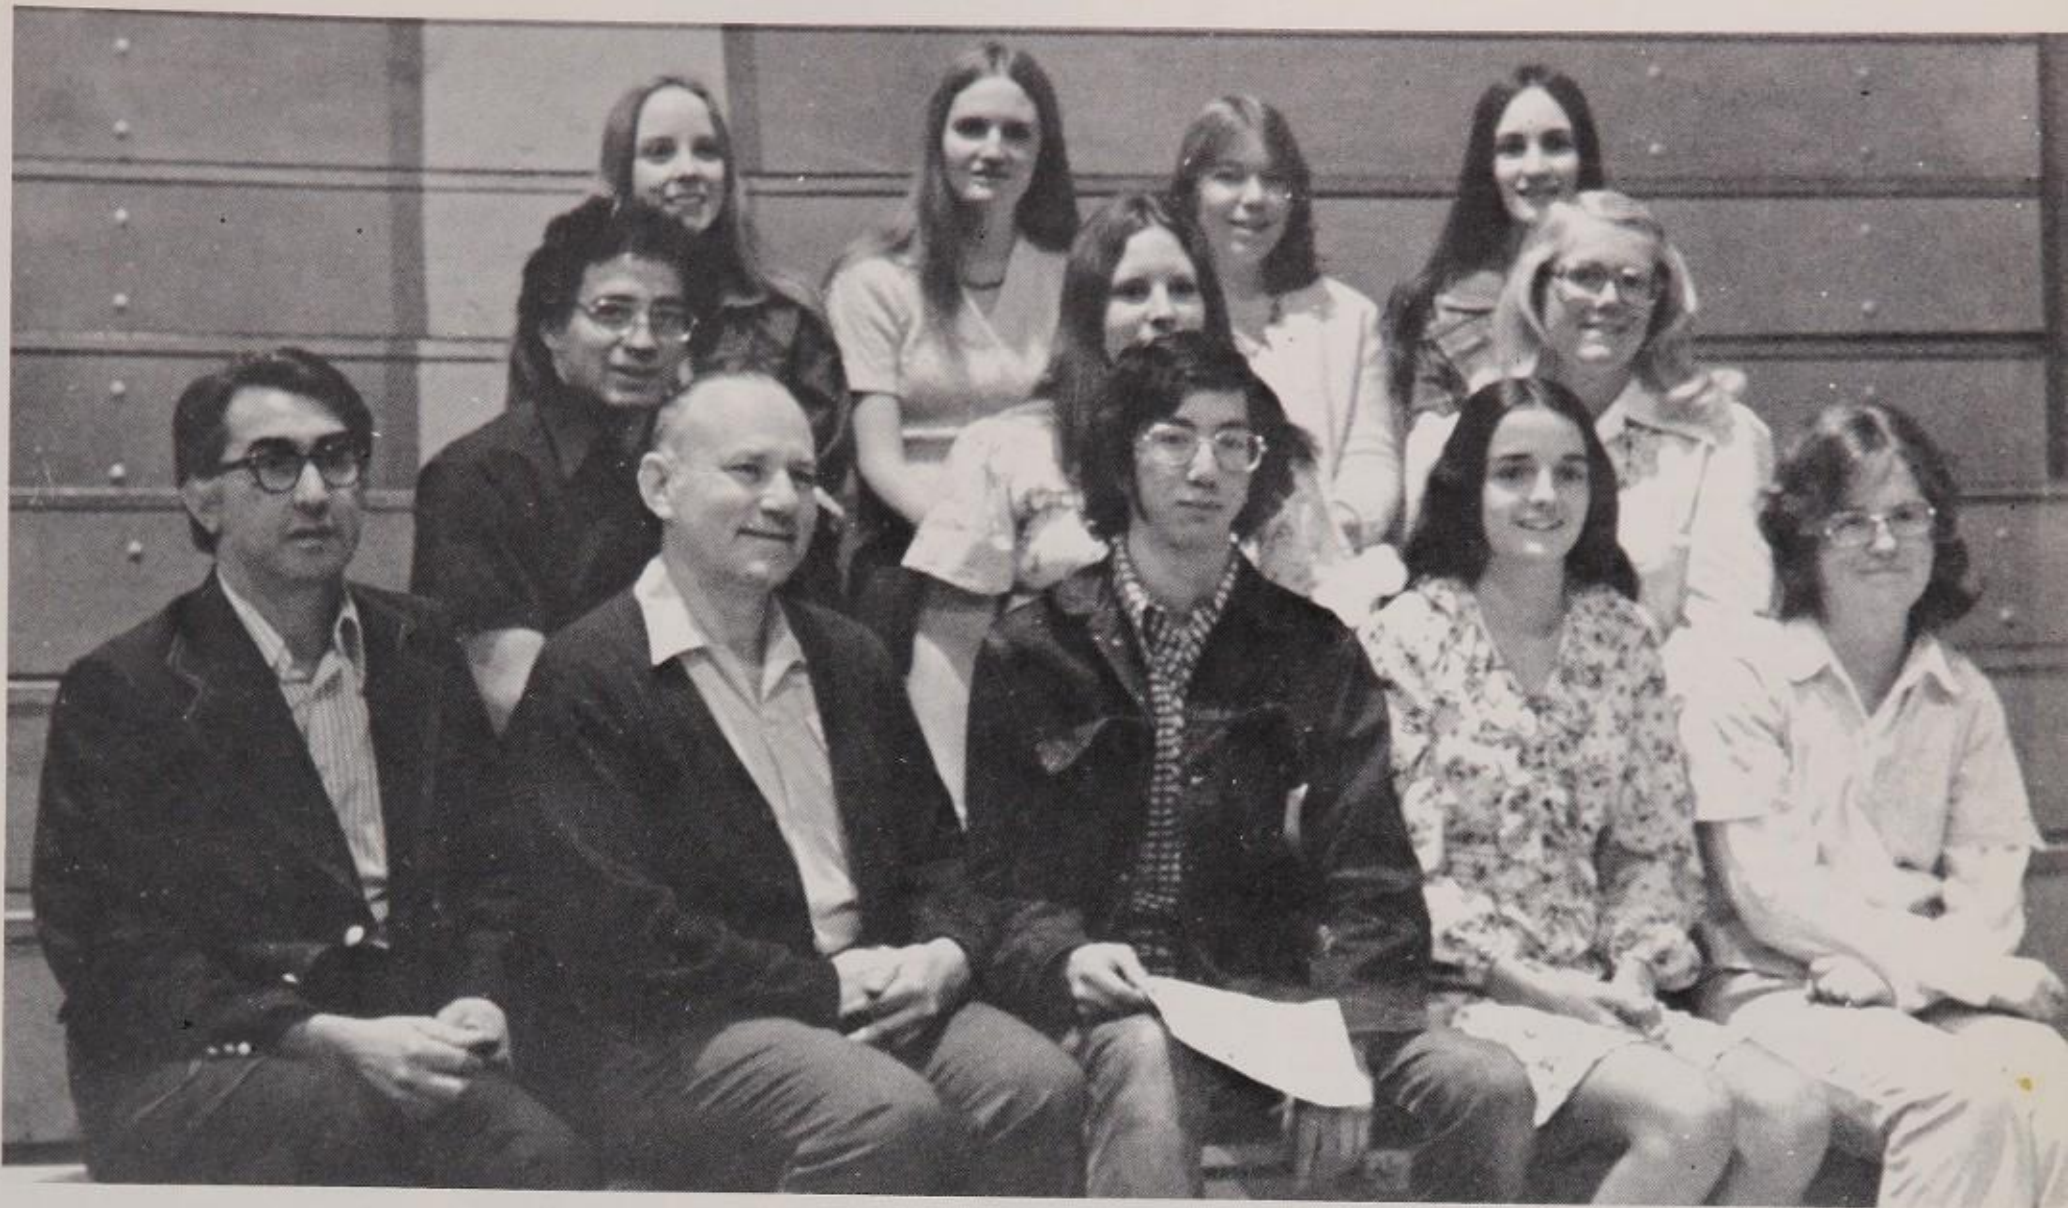

The clubs held several bake sales, sold bio-degradable ecology soap, and sold candles to raise money to pay for their yearbook pages.

Other activities of the clubs included Christmas caroling, a trip to Mexico at Easter, and their annual banquet in May.

To qualify for the SNHS, students must have been in either Spanish 3 or 4.

Drama Presents 4 School Plays

The 74-75 school year was a busy and prosperous one for Drama Club and Thespians at Sandia. Under the direction of Patsy Giffin, they presented four of the 'best' all-school plays Sandia has ever seen. They were "Ring Around the Moon," "Thurber Carnival," "Look Homeward Angel," and "Tea Party," written by Harold Pinter, which they presented at the UNM Drama Festival. Sandia was the only high school invited to perform at the Festival.

Drama Club also participated in TWIRP Week by presenting the first annual Monster Melodramas, which Sandians received with considerable appreciation.

"The Princess and Mr. Parker" and "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" were the children's plays that the Drama 1 classes presented at Sandia and some of the neighboring elementary schools. Drama 2 classes also presented several plays for the Freshman Orientation classes, in which the students actually directed themselves.

In some of their out-of-town festivals and meets, every member of the team won awards, most of them Superior Awards. Sandia was also the only school to do this.

Yearbook Includes Chaos, Creativity

For the first time in Sandia's history the yearbook was delivered in August.

This came about after hard and long discussions on including the entire school year, not producing a March to March book. Another factor in the decision was the change of sponsors in the middle of the semester.

With the addition of freshmen, an extra fifty pages were added, making a total of 320 pages.

Color pictures of students in the opening section added to the effect of 'People', the theme.

The cover is red with a special silkscreen posterization done in white. Endsheets were planned so that their design would continue through to the opening page. The special screen was done as a different added effect.

This year's book was edited by Jim Henslee, Editor-in-Chief; Ormond Doty and Danni Webb, Associate Editors.

The book was sponsored by Miss Sharon Snyder.

Format Changes Appear in Sandian

After being cancelled for five months, the Sandian was revived this year, with five issues being published. Miss Sharon Snyder became sponsor after Miss Jo Boughton resigned early in the year for an English position.

The first issue was printed on newsprint, but subsequent issues were changed to white book paper to improve contrast and picture qualities. The changes of format for the year included tighter layouts, picture pages and more art designing.

Hard work by the student photographers improved coverage of events. They were Don Scott, Darrel Patterson, Ormond Doty and Richard Smoker, who was also Sports Editor.

Sage Distributed Last Week in May

This year the Sage, Sandia's creative writing magazine, was published entirely by the staff. In the past the magazine had been compiled by the staff and sent to an out-of-town printer.

The literary magazine includes poetry, short stories, art, essays, music and photography from Sandia students. Co-editors of the Sage were Cindy Burgard and Nancy Simmons, and the sponsor was Ray Nelson.

Deadline for purchasing a Sage was December 20. Entry deadline was February 25. Issues of the 1975 Sage was distributed to Sandians during the last week of May.

CCC Sponsors 'Festival of Life'

Concerned Campus Kids, (CCC), an organization started second semester by a group of Sandia students, participated in a variety of activities during the year.

Their main activity was sponsoring Sandia's first annual "Festival of Life." The day was held to raise money for the Los Lunas Home for the Mentally Retarded. An art show, hot dog and coke stands, and live bands were some of the events at the festival.

Other activities included the publication of the magazine "Come Together," helping transplant trees by the outdoor classroom, a boycott of the cafeteria, and selling of the book "Daybreak" by Joan Baez.

Ayudantes Give Food to Needy

The members of Ayudantes girls service club had many projects this last year.

Besides bake sales and car washes, the girls sold candy canes and made baskets of food for needy families. Secret sisters and caroling were Christmas activities.

The club sponsored a dance in March and a campus clean-up and barbecue in April.

This year's officers were President Olivia Cordoza, Vice-President Amy Risch, Secretary-Treasurer Carmalita Fernando, Chaplain Pam Detorie, and Historian Dawn Dalporto.

Sponsors for the club were Ms. Donna Aubrey and Mr. Lawrence O'Kelley.

Coquettes Donate Time, Money

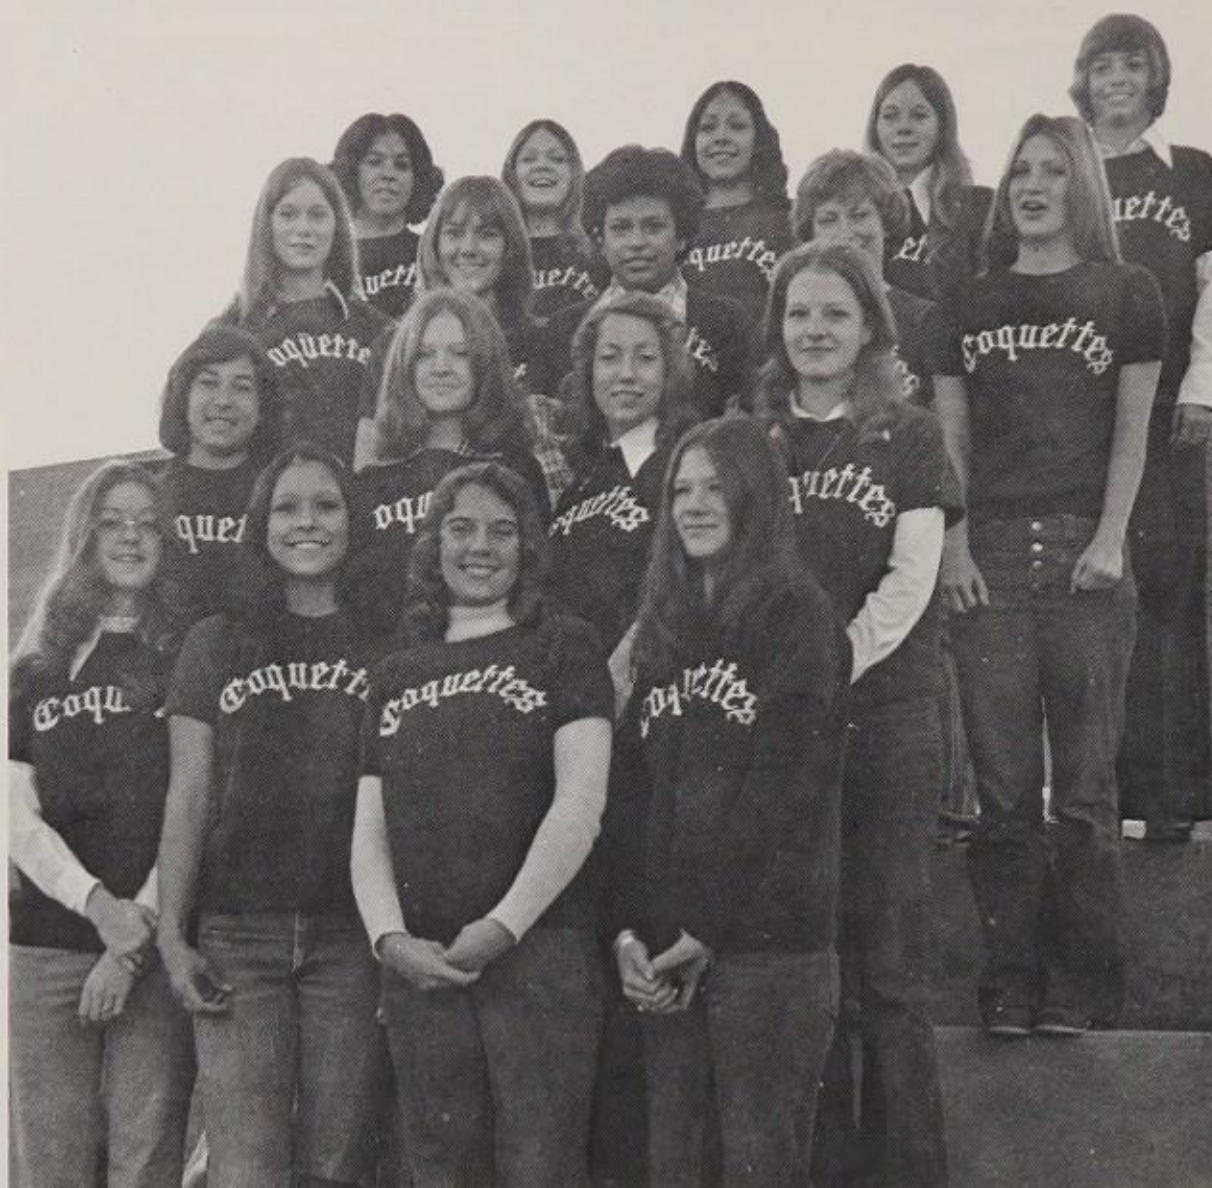

For the first time, Coquettes held a tea for the newly formed freshman girls service club, Alveras, to introduce and answer questions about club activities and responsibilities.

During Homecoming Week, girls decorated "F" wing and joined in with other girls service club to decorate the gym.

At Christmas time, Coquettes upheld the annual traditions of caroling through the halls and selling candy canes.

On Valentines Day, Coquettes sponsored a "Sweetheart" dance. Funds from the dance were donated to the Heart Fund. Sweethearts for the year were Judd Knight and Shauna Garcia.

In the springtime, the 50-member club performed a "Storyland" skit at the 1975 TWIRP Assembly. Candidates were Frank LaCourse and Todd Hirt.

Cordial Members Benefit All-Faiths

Donating $100 to United Fund and giving a Christmas Party and gifts to Four Seasons Nursing Home were just two of the community service projects of Cordials girls service club this year.

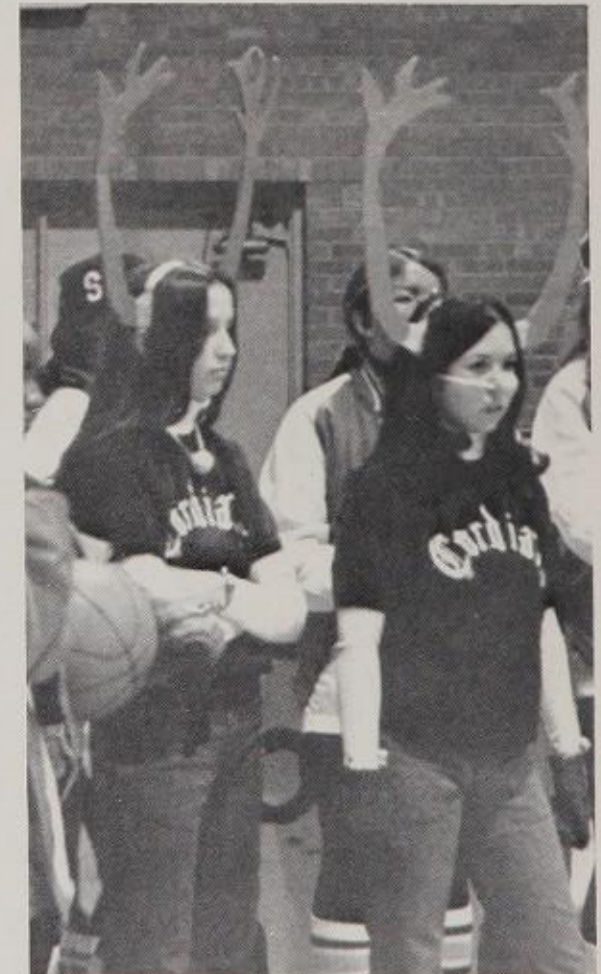

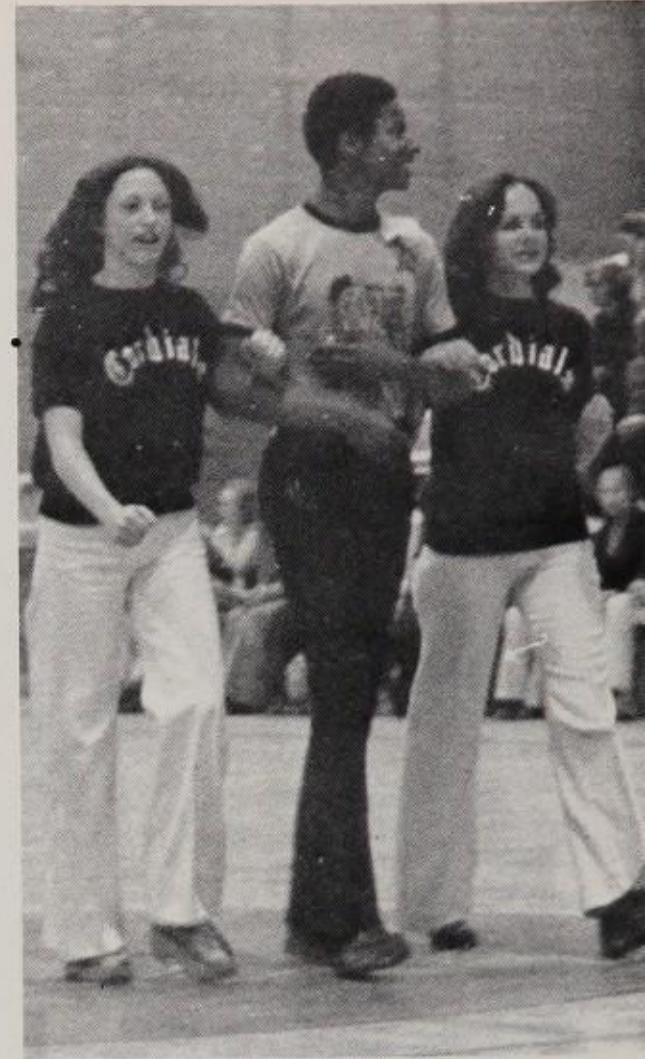

The 44-member club also donated time and supplies to such school sponsored activities as Homecoming, Prom, and Dingus Day. Also Cordials donated $75 to the SHS Christmas fund.

In the spring members sold heart-ograms, candy and held bake sales to raise money.

For the first time several of the SHS girls' service clubs including Cordials worked together in such efforts as painting the bathrooms, raising school spirit, and donating money to the Muscular Dystrophy Fund.

This year's officers were President Kathy Castillo, Vice-President Paula McWhoter, Secretary Kathy Seabaugh, Treasurer Shauna Garcia, Historian Penny Place, Parliamentarian Eileen Toft, Chaplain Ann Beutler.

Club sponsor this year was Ms. Marilyn Hoppman.

Elites Sponsor Halloween Dance

Members of Elites service club were kept busy throughout the year with various activities.

The club donated money from bake sales, and candy sales to two needy families through the United Christian Fund.

Elites sponsored the Halloween Dance in which prizes were given for best costumes.

Two campus clean-ups were held in the spring along with a softball game with the Coquettes club.

Officers this year were President Mona Leonard, Vice-President Julie Larabee, Secretary Jenny Carlson, Treasurer Patti Gaynor, Chaplain Brooke Tully, and Historian Julie Martin.

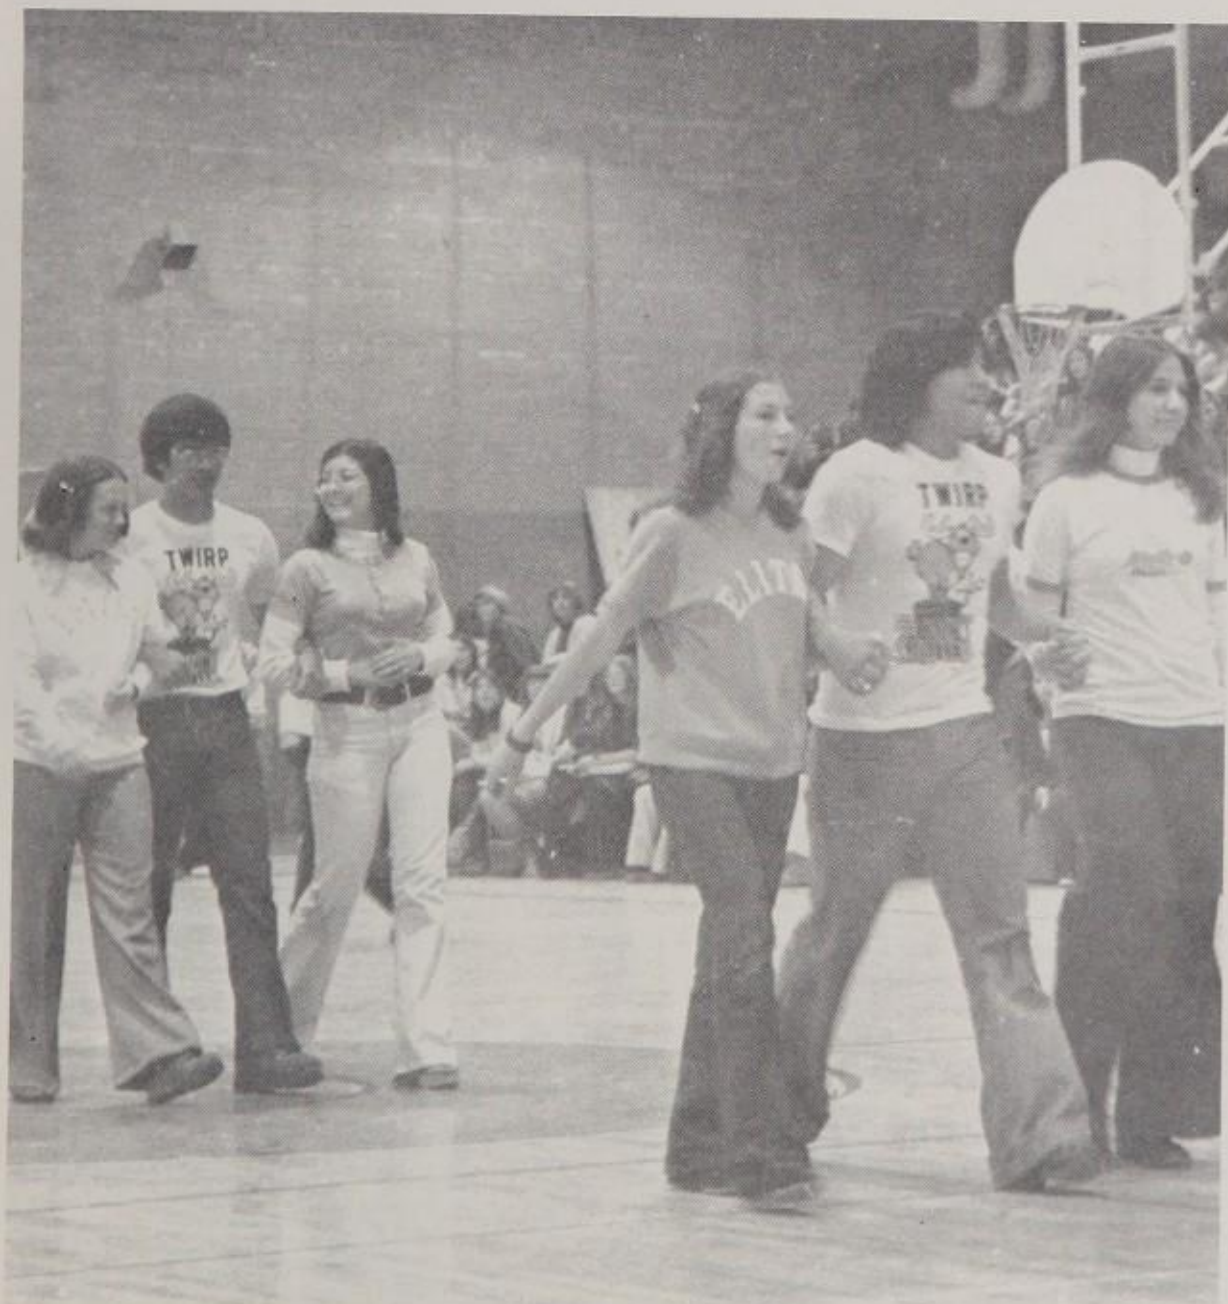

Club sponsor again this year was Ms. Ingrid Crawford.

IVY Benefits Christmas Project

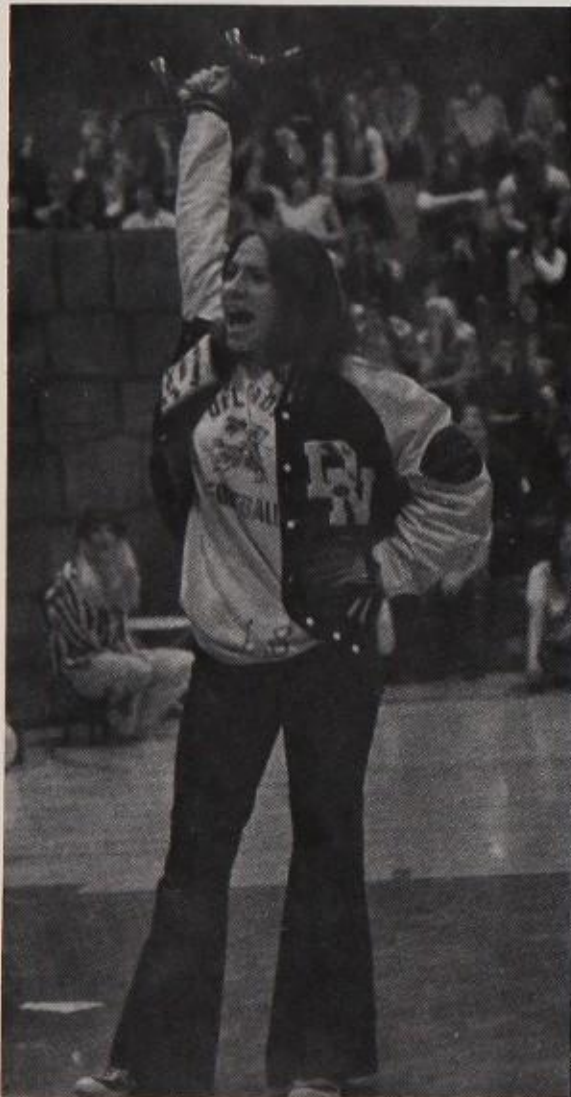

Members of IVY, senior girls honorary, were kept busy with many activities.

Bake sales and a cake auction were held in December and money was donated to the SHS Christmas Project.

Other fund raising projects included annual Carmel Apple sales, selling balloons at Sandia football games, and sponsoring a dance in late fall.

The club also kidnapped TWIRP candidates and Sandia's Foreign Exchange students.

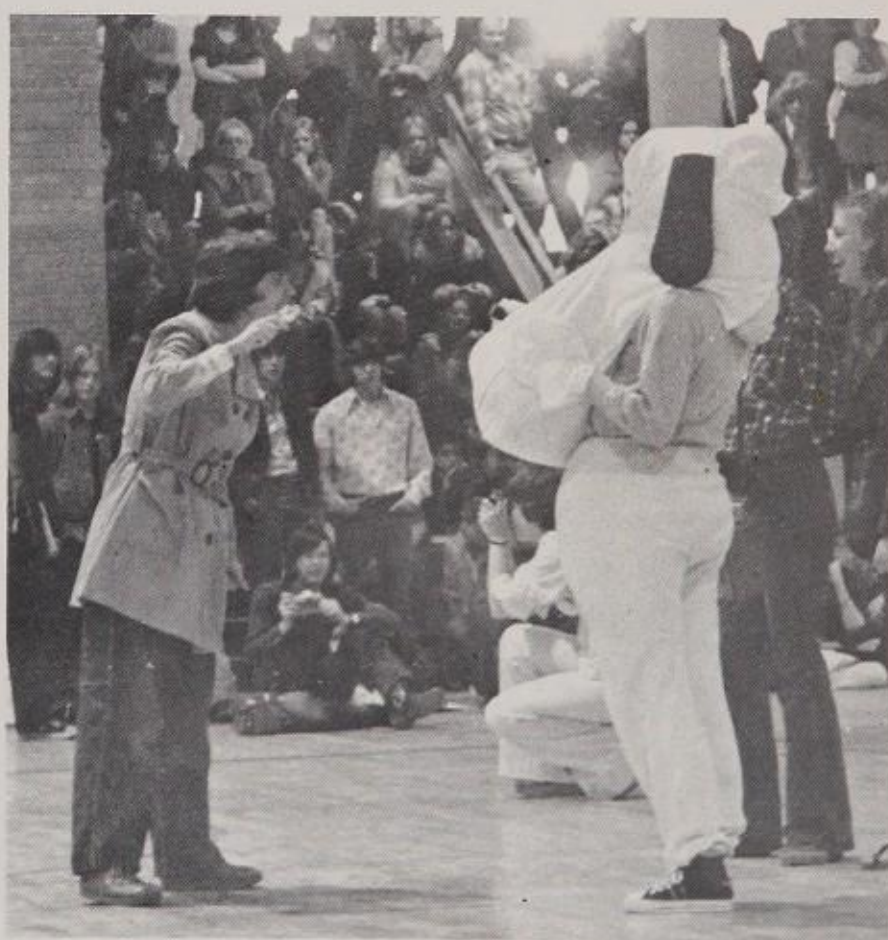

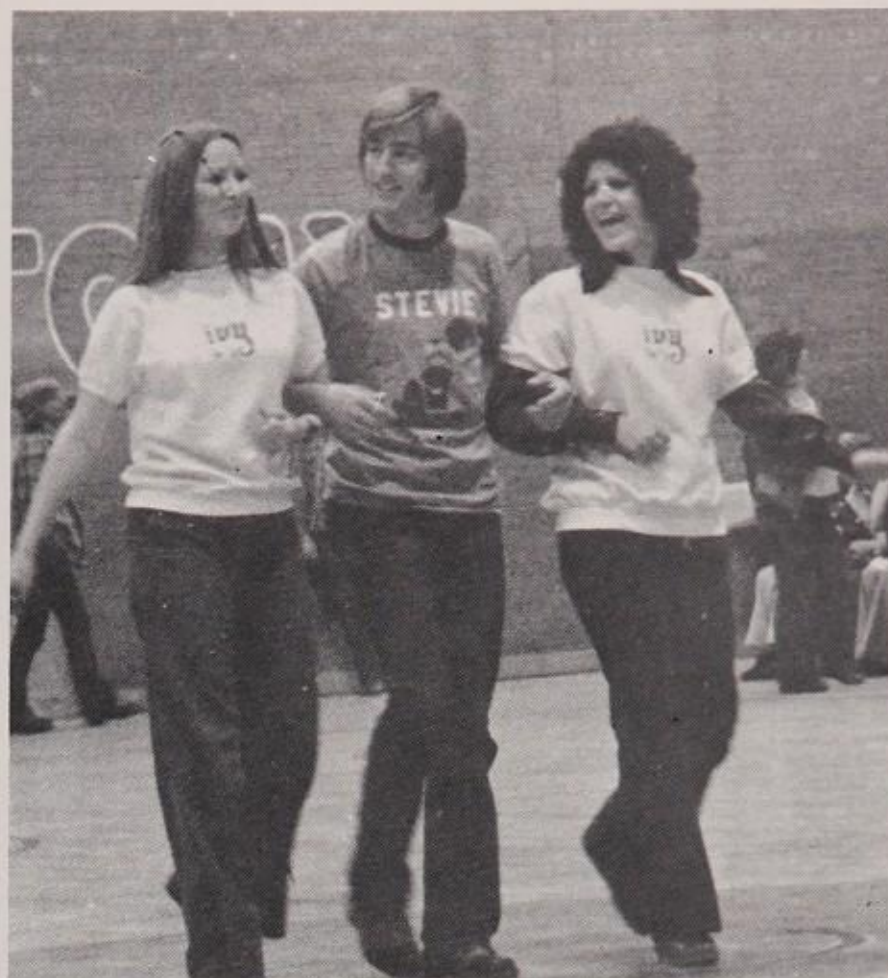

Mr. Polansky was this year's club sponsor.

Girls' Sports Club Sponsors Dance

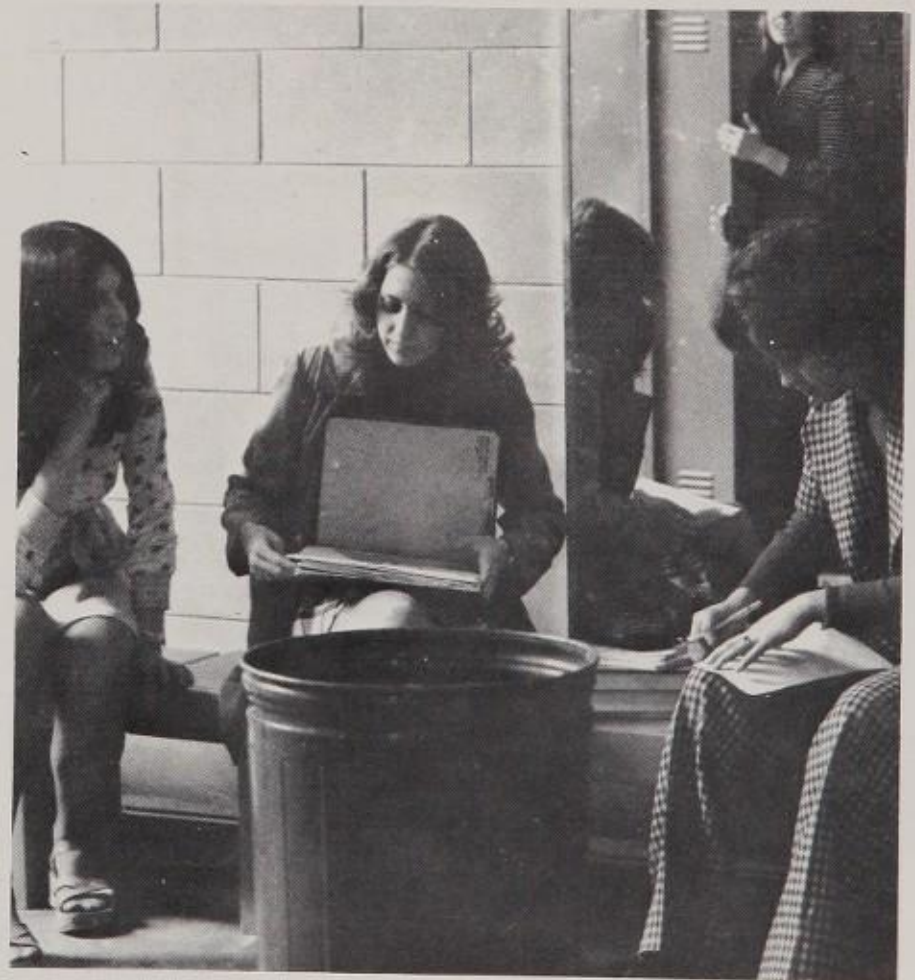

The Girls' Sports Club is designed to honor any girl who has played on a varsity team. Girls' Sports Club is the equivalent to the boys' Lettermen's Club.

The club sponsored a dance on April 6, and held a St. Patrick's day bake sale.

The annual Sports Day had to be cancelled because of time and space.

There were approximately 30 members in the club this year. Officers were Terri Murphy, president; Sheryl Mitchell, vice president; Jeanne Lance, secretary; and Penny Place, treasurer.

Mrs. Mazik sponsored the club this year.

Drill Team Representatives At National Convention

This year's state competition was held in Los Alamos, January 31, with Sandia taking the state championship. The routine was choreographed by Pam Hicks and performed to Casino Royale. The first place trophy in District AAAA went to Del Norte.

Las Terreras also participated in the annual Christmas Parade and brought home the first place trophy.

After winning the state championship, Sandia was invited to perform at the National Drill Team Convention in Las Vegas, Nevada. They were one of four teams in the nation to be invited. Besides performing at the convention the girls attended the Connie Stevens dinner show and made a short trip to Disneyland.

Various fund-raising projects were used to raise money for the trip to Las Vegas and California. Bake sales, car washes, donations, raffle tickets, and cheeseburger tickets were all used.

The girls practiced all summer on the routines they performed at the football and basketball games.

Special state practices began in September and continued until the competition.

This year's sponsor was Ernest Polansky. Officers were Lorraine Chavez, president; Susan Churchill, vice-president; Cindy Freeze, secretary treasurer.

This year's drill team members were selected in the spring of '74. Votes were cast by senior drill team members, Mr. Polansky, Mr. Mueller, Pam Hicks and three UNM Chaparrels.

Club Performs At UNM Arena

In January, members of the Modern Dance Club performed two dance routines during a halftime of a UNM basketball game. The week before, the girls gave the same show during a Sandia basketball game halftime.

Due to the large membership, the club was divided into two groups, juniors and seniors. Tryouts were held to determine the make up of each group. Twenty-nine girls were chosen to be in the senior group.

The club has been in existence for two years with Mrs. Jettie Charleton as sponsor. The girls spent many hours practicing for the various performances.

Marchers Earn Parade Honors

Under the direction of Tom Martin, Sandia's Marching Band performed at all the football games, and attended an out of town game in Alamogordo.

The band also marched during the Christmas parade and was awarded first place.

While performing, the band wore blue jackets and pants with red trim and red plume hats with blue trim.

Approximately one hundred Sandians that made up the Marching Band practiced every morning before school.

Three Foreigners Visit School

When I came to the United States I was far away from my people, my language, my country and everything I was used to. I had a thought that it would be very strange, but I decided to open my mind and to make it go away. I was ready for everything.

Because of the distance from Brazil, I started to find out a lot of things about my people; the way they live, they are, and the way they think. I found out a lot about myself, too. I was in another culture. I started to learn about it. I learned the language and I learned how to make a friend that couldn't understand me because of the difference in the language. A lot of people thought I was weird or crazy or anything like that just because of the way I am. I was trying to be a friend of everyone, to love them just by being myself; at least I was trying it. Along this period I was teaching, at the same time I was learning, too, about my people. Because even though we're human beings, we have different characteristics and origins. If we can learn about ourselves we can live together and that's the whole thing. I hope you understand what I mean. Before, when I got here, I couldn't write it down, but you all helped me out to pick up the language. Now I did it. Far out!

CLASSES

Address System For Gymnasium Senior Project

Rick Gould, with Erin McNew, vice-president and Adrie Wilson, secretary-treasurer, led the 12th grade through their last year at Sandia.

During the school year, the 741 seniors attempted to print a student directory, and put forth the annual Nostalgia Day and Dance. Near the close of the year, seniors established graduation decorum, had a graduation party and a picnic.

The Senior class project was a new amplification system for the gymnasium. They elected "Photographs and Memories" for their class song.

Juniors Follow Prom Tradition

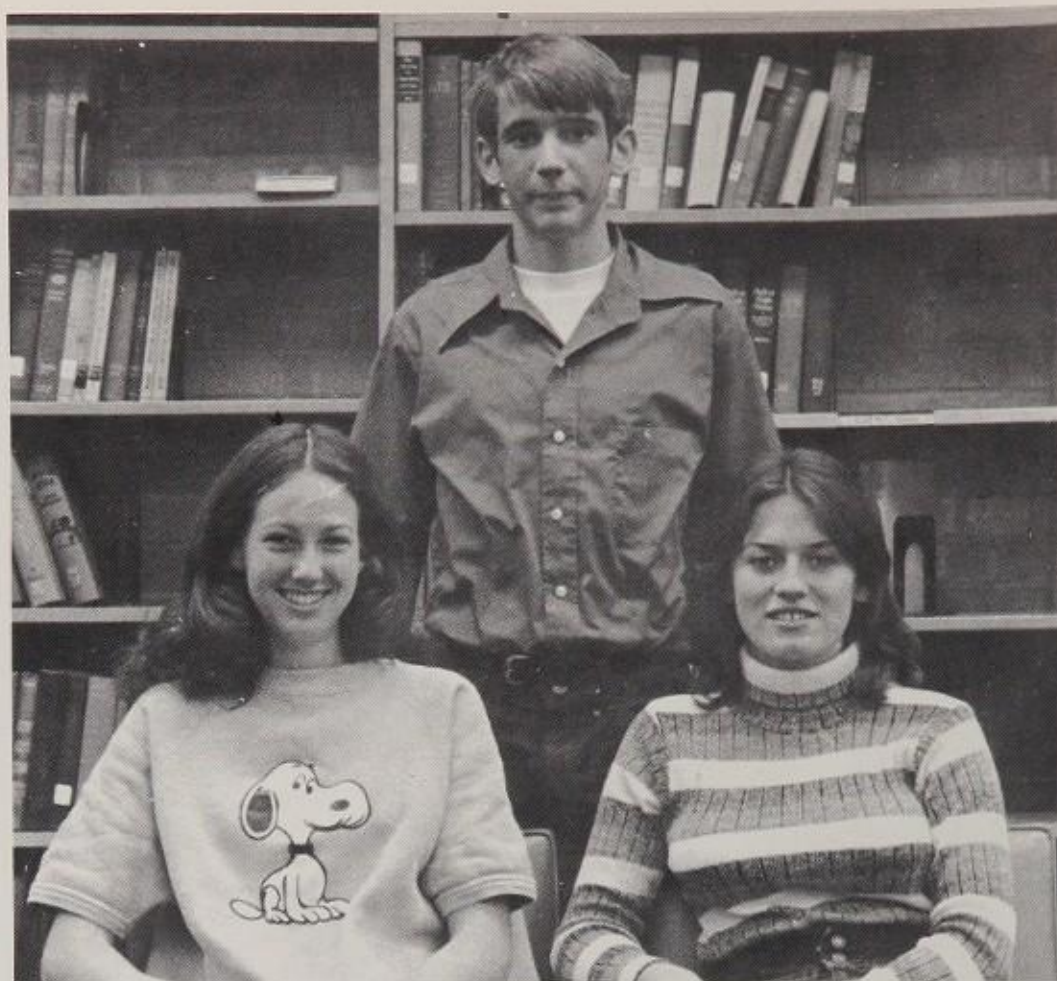

John Walter led the second largest class at Sandia with the aide of Tracey Scott, vice-president and Bridget Markusfeld, secretary-treasurer.

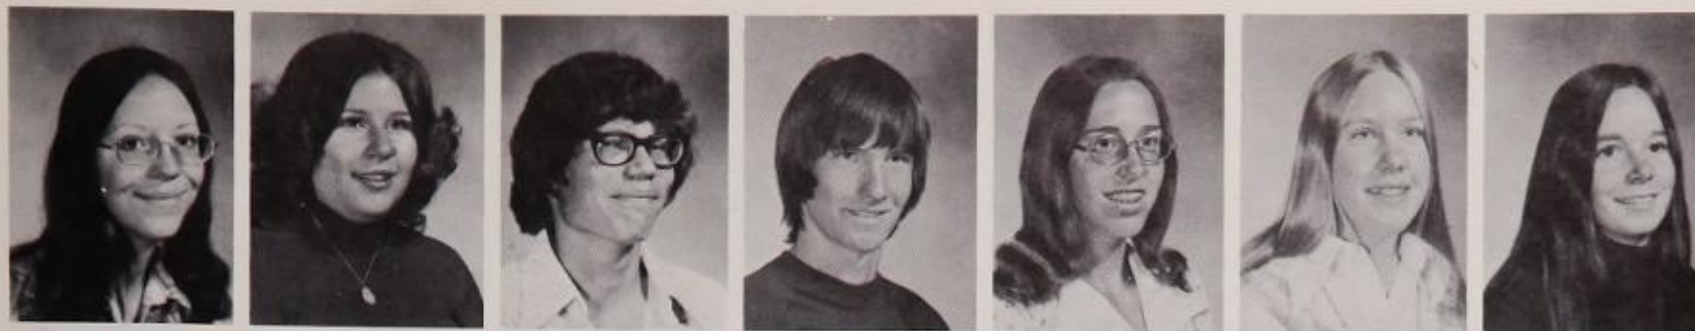

The Juniors, with more than 780 members, started the year off with two dances, and the Christmas Ball, their first attempt to sponsor that dance in four years. The class of '76 continued through the year by putting on a Hootenanny during TWIRP Week. As the year came to an end they gave the seniors the traditional Prom, held on May 9th at the Convention Center.

The largest class at Sandia elected for their president, Jimmy Keller; Lindsay Coates, vice-president; Linnea Johnson, secretary-treasurer.

Near the beginning of the year the class of '77 started a newspaper drive. The 10th graders added to school spirit by selling ribbons during basketball season. Still working to raise money for next year's prom, they sold donuts and candy, and had a dance.

TOP: Sophomore class officers are Lindsay Coates, vice-president; Jimmy Keller, president; Linnea Johnson, secretary-treasurer.

RIGHT: Tom Swift holds Lori Woodmansee back from getting even in a shaving cream battle.

Freshman Class Added to SHS, Exceeds 590

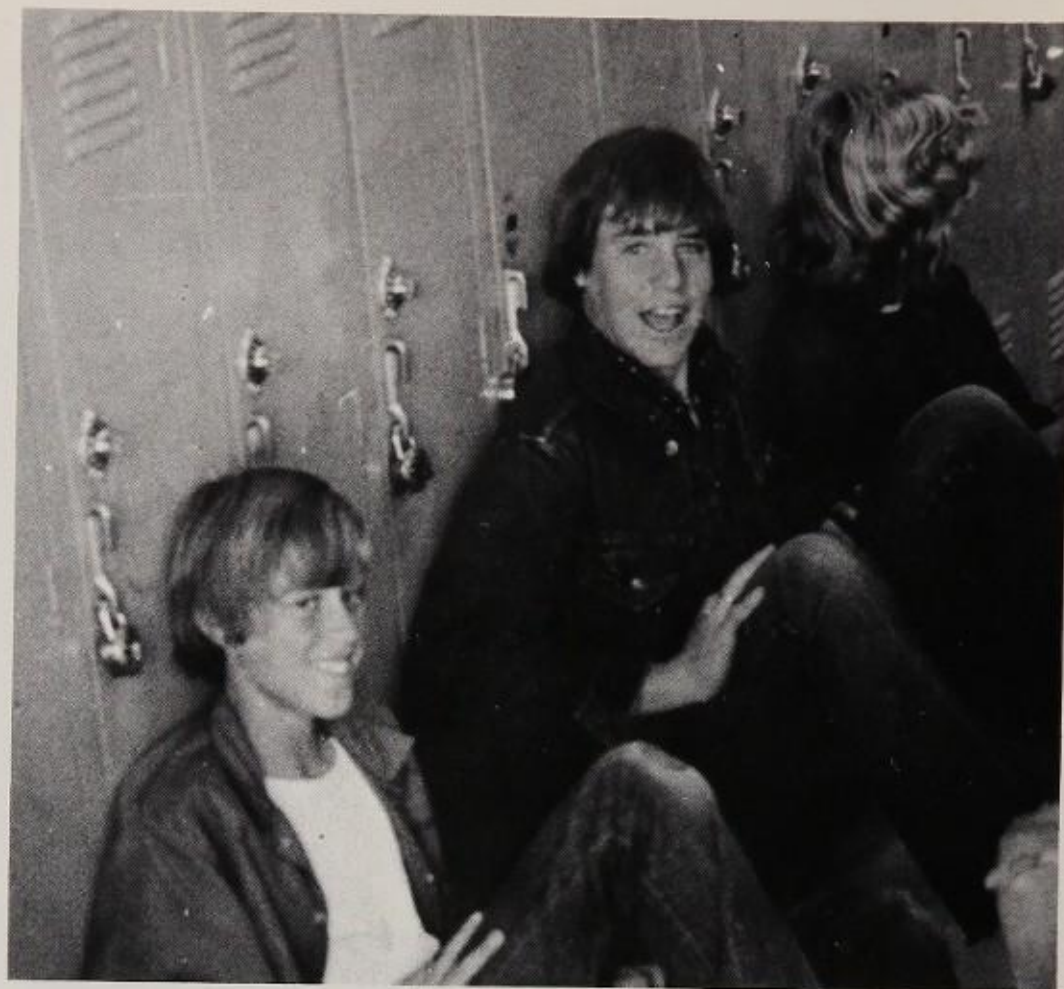

The first Freshman class ever to enter Sandia elected as their officers Tracy Brown, president; Melinda Smith, vice-president; Kathy Robinson, secretary treasurer.

The 9th graders sponsored two dances and had a bake sale. They held a contest with the Seniors to raise money for the Christmas project, and won. The class of '78 plans to replace the Matador or at least get a memorial plaque.

The year has been a time of changes and of people. The addition of freshmen ... over-crowding ... blackouts ... freezing cold (in the building) ... two mile walk to school at school ... new buildings ... gerbils ... rowdies ... football monsoons ... Artichokes ... social dancing with "Graceful Griffith" ... Mt. Olympus ... metal shortage caused by Speech Team ... Homo jockorus - "None of the above" ... new homes for goldfish ... Large ... Art Rose ... Freddie ... M.? ... Pasty ... Osborne's 1000 words ... Salute and wave that flag! ... The familiar cry of "Radio."

Special thanks need to go to many students and faculty ... Jim Mueller for being there in times of need and of no need ... to Connie for being Mrs. McNew ... to McDonald's for breakfast, lunch and dinner ... to Jack Atkins for his countless contributions ... Bill Smith for his rushed trips to Sandia during panics ... to Mrs. Harmon for a lot of understanding about room conditions.

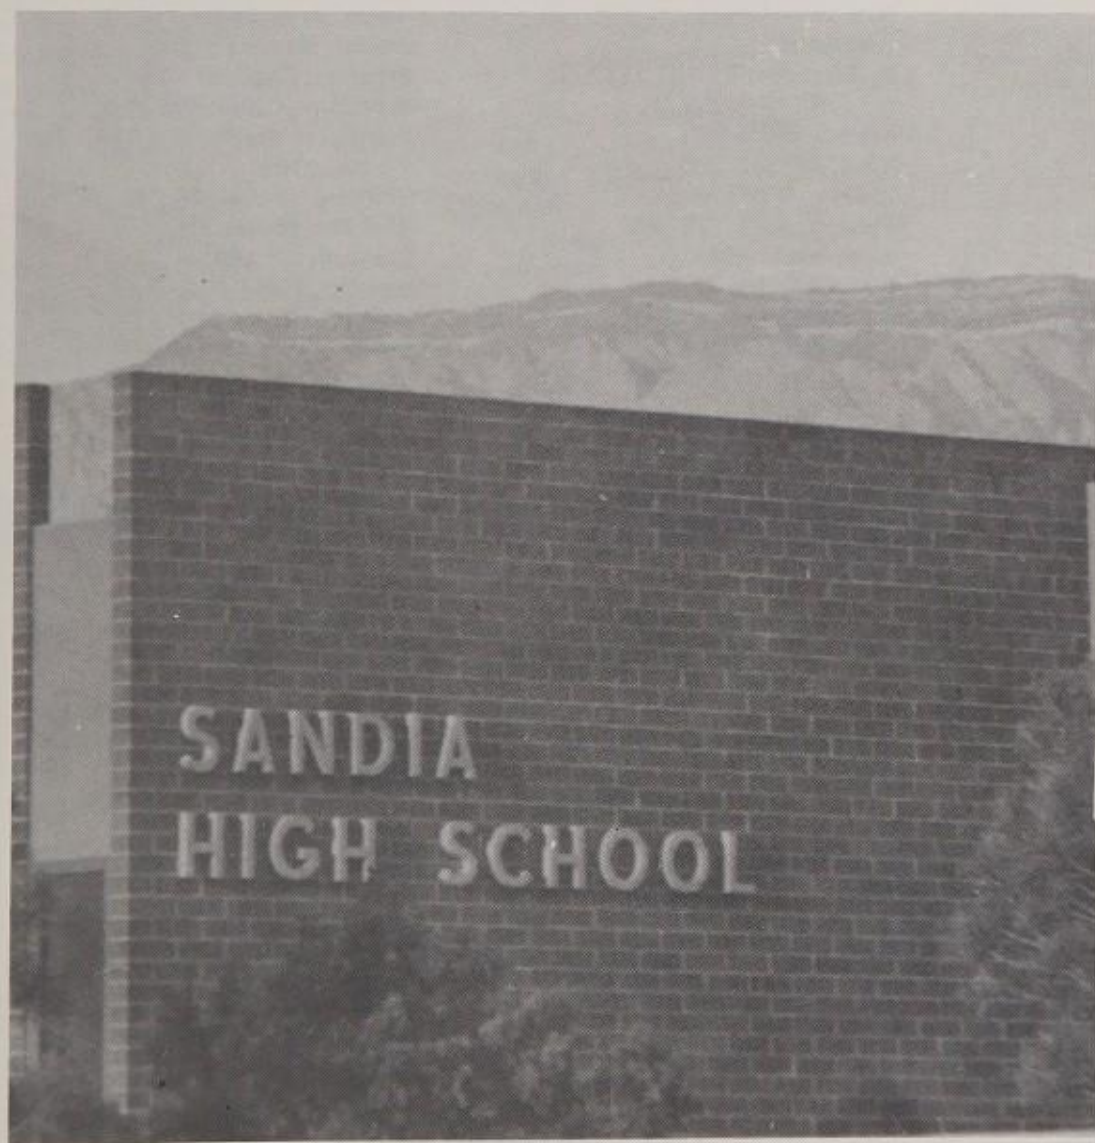

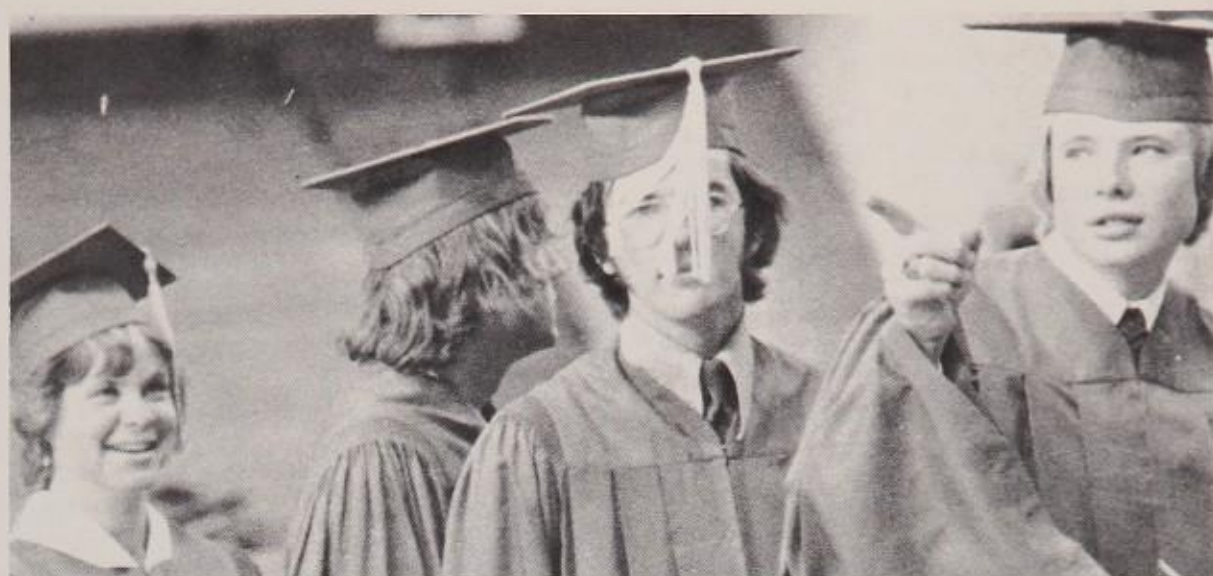

And of course to Snyder who came in late and brought us through our many deadlines and hardships.

U. S. NAVY RECRUITING DISTRICT P O Box 8667 ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO 87108

To: Sandia High School's Class of '75
 7801 Candelaria Road N.E.
 Albuquerque, New Mexico 87110

The men and women of the United States Navy wish to take this opportunity to congratulate you on your graduation. You are now at the threshold of your adult life, and what you do now may very well influence the type of career you will pursue as well as the style of life you will live.

For those of you who have the desire, we strongly urge you to follow your high school education with college. For those of you who do not, we recommend that you seek employment with a well-established firm. One that will pay a living wage, train you to do a specific job, offers a progressive future and a sound retirement plan. Then, if you decide to change employers, you will have three things working for you: your high school education, a highly demanded skill and the practical experience to back it up.

The Navy has been doing this for nearly two-hundred years. With people just like you. When you start looking for a job, stop by your local Navy Recruiter's office at 2301 Juan Tabo N. E. for a cup of coffee, or, call him at 766-2329, and find out what the Navy offers the high school graduate. We think you will be pleasantly surprised.

Respectfully yours,

The Navy

Why am I here—

What purpose guides my steps?

What desire burns within my soul?

Some men climb peaks to greatness;

Others live in shadows, fading away to the dark depths of the unknown.

What difference lies within the minds of men,

What spark, what hope lights their way?

Greed for some, glory for many,

But for that one, neither of these.

What of the martyr, the healer, the leader of men?

Some plan of fate placed them in history.

For a few, immortality is gained in an instant,

Others toil for a life time.

I push forward into life

Toward a task I am to perform,

A point in time, the moment of my existence.

Will I falter on the path or turn away

unable to grasp my fate?

Or will I reach that summit

To stand with those few who know their destiny?

S. Snyder
